Van Petten, A Bloodless Revolution; Mrs. Lee Cabies, England under Queen Anne. Mrs. W. J. Weese is chairman for the discussion of articles in the Delphian Quarterly.

YTURRASPE-HAYLETT

Jordan Valley—Miss Maxine Haylett of Sheville and Jesse Yturraspe of Jordan Valley were quietly married at the home of Rev. Harry Hamilton at Nampa January 18th. They were accompanied by the grooms sister and cousin Louisa Yturraspe and Antone Acarriga; and the brides mother Mrs. D. H. Haylett.

Mrs. Yturraspe is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Haylett of Sheville and has spent the most of her life there, and has been assistant postmaster for several years. Mr. Yturraspe is the son of Mrs. Luis Yturraspe of Jordan Valley where he was born and raised. They will make their home in Jordan Valley where Mr. Yturraspe is employed at a local garage. Both the bride and groom have a host of friends who join in wishing them much happiness in their new life.

BASHFORD-VERISTAIN

The marriage vows were read Saturday evening, January 23rd at the Methodist parsonage for James Bashford and Juanita Veristain of Vale, with Rev. Floyd White officiating. Close relatives and friends were in attendance, and Esther Raasina acted as bridesmaid and Ray Knezevich was best man.

INJUSTICE TO WADE SCHOOL CHILDREN

Just after the paper was printed last week we noticed an unintentional mistake which proof reading did not catch. The error was in the Christmas Seal sale report which indicated that Wade school had sold no seals whereas they sold $6.00 worth. This is a very fine record and was better than any of the country schools under the jurisdiction of the Nyssa committee. We should like to have Wade school accept our humble apology for the error.

BURNS WEEKLY SOLD TO CALIFORNIA MAN

The Harney County American, weekly paper published at Burns, Oregon, was sold last week to Stewart Beardlee of Jamestown, California. The former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cornell, were forced to sell on account of the serious illness of Mr. Cornell.

Wheat prices dropped slightly on the basis of snow reports. Grades that were showing a top of $1.37 are down to $1.35.

GREETINGS: How do you like this Eskimo life? Better than looking out of a third-story window watching the floods carry away all your life's possessions. Life in Nyssa is much better now that we have some more of that Aberdeen coal. The boys were kept busy delivering that first car that arrived Saturday and now we have more cars of this famous fuel to keep Nyssa homes warm.

OREGON TRAIL GRANGE HAVING CARD PARTIES

The new Oregon Trail Grange are sponsoring a series of card parties, each being held on a Thursday night. Tonight will see the second of the series with the third planned for next Thursday, February 4th. Pinochle was in play last week with John Stam winning high for men and Mildred Adams high for women. John Bowen and Mrs. Joe Stam were low prize winners. Besides cards, refreshments are part of the evenings pleasure, and last Thursday a surprise package was won by Bob Holmes. A rug will be disposed of tonight in a similar manner. The public is invited to these affairs and a good time is promised.

CIVIC CLUB TEA POSTPONED

Due to the cold weather last week the benefit tea for the Dornbecher hospital, sponsored by the Civic Club was postponed and the plans are now to hold the tea and program at their February meeting.
