KINGMAN KOLONY

By MRS. C. E. ELLIOTT

Very little school has been held at Kingman during January owing to several things, among them was so much illness. The fact that the building caught fire and while no great damage was done it took a week to repair it. At present the snow drifts are so deep the school bus cannot get the children to and from school, so they are still having vacation in Kingman.

Ray Elliot was a Boise visitor on Wednesday.

Among those who are ill with the flu are the Hibard, J. G. Lane, M. L. Judd families and Mr. C. C. Cotton.

Mr. Walter Pinkston has purchased a Fordson to use for his spring work.

It has been necessary for those living around the square to get their mail at the Overstreet boxes as the road is not open through the Kolony.

A large number of farmers attended the farm meeting which was held in the school house Saturday. Various crops, as well as beets, to be raised this year were discussed. The meeting was conducted by Mr. E. M. Hauser, assistant club leader.

Mrs. Dollie McCreary who has been staying with her daughter Mrs. C. E. Elliott during the time Mrs. Elliott was seriously ill with pneumonia, has returned to her home on the upper Owyhee. Mrs. Elliot is recovering nicely.

Mr. C. C. Cotton has returned from a visit in California. Mrs. Cotton is visiting in Twin Falls at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Overstreet have returned to their home after a three weeks visit with their son Robert of Boise.
