

OREGON TRAIL
MRS. FRANK BYERS

The 40th anniversary of the founding of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers was celebrated by Oregon Trail PTA at the February meeting Friday evening February 19.

A special Founder's Day program was given. The following members taking part, Mary Lou Thomason, Mrs. Frank Byers, Mrs. F. C. Fry, Mrs. F. G. Holmes, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, and Mrs. Chas. Thomason. At the close of the ceremony refreshments were served and a silver offering taken. This contribution was sent to the state to help with expenses. The program committee, Mrs. Albert Hopkins and Dwight Johnston and the hospitality committee, Mrs. F. G. Holmes and Mrs. J. E. Bowen had charge of the evening's program.

During the business meeting Mr. Albert Hopkins stated that three 4-H clubs had been organized; a Boys Calf Club with twelve members and Chas. Thomason leader; a Girls Sewing club with eleven members and Mrs. Marion Chard leader; a Girls

Cooking club with eleven members and Mrs. Grover Cooper leader.

It was decided to work toward ending the outstanding member from each club to 4-H summer school at Corvallis next summer. Last year two scholarships were awarded by the PTA. Mr. Hopkins turned into the treasurer $6.26 which was obtained from the Pie Social sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins for the school children last week to help with 4-H club expenses.

Party for Mrs. Cooper
Members of the Adult Bible class of Oregon Trail Sunday School gathered at the home of Mrs. Grover Cooper last Wednesday afternoon honoring her birthday. Mrs. F. G. Holmes, Mrs. Wm. DeGroff and Mrs. Loyd Adams were co-hostesses for the afternoon.

In games and contest that were played, Mrs. Frank Parr, Mrs. J. E. Bowen and Mrs. F. C. Fry received first prizes. Mrs. Frank Parr received a second prize and Mrs. Geo. McKee and Mrs. Loyd Adams consolation prizes. Refreshments of tea and wafers closed a pleasant afternoon. These parties are held each month and are greatly enjoyed by the class.

Mrs. Geo. McKee, Mrs. Clyde Mitchell and Mrs. J. E. Bowen will have charge of the March party.

Party for Mrs. R. W. Holmes
A group of friends and relatives surprised Mrs. R. W. Holmes Sunday evening honoring her birthday. Four tables of pinocle were in play with Mrs. Loyd Adams and J. E. Bowen receiving high score prizes and Mrs. J. E. Bowen and F. G. Holmes consolation prizes. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those attending were Messrs and Mesdames Wm. DeGroff, Loyd Adams, F. G.

Holmes, J. E. Bowen, Albert Hopkins, F. S. Byers, and Roy and Bob Holmes.

Mrs. Stella Reick left for her home in Muskatine, Iowa last Friday. Mrs. Reick has visited for several months at the F. C. Fry and Mrs. Lucille Johnston homes. She is a cousin of Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. Lucille Johnston.

F. G. Holmes made a business trip to Vale last Wednesday afternoon.

Loyd Adams has nearly finished building a house on his new land. The Adams plan to move to their new home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Low and family of Caldwell were visitors Sunday afternoon at the Wm. DeGroff and J. E. Bowen homes.

Carl Ayres arrived at the F. G. Holmes home last Tuesday from Duck Valley where he has been employed by Terteling. Mr. Ayres left the first of this week for Boardman Oregon to visit with his parents for a few days.

Ray Fudge has sold his farm. He expects to move his family to Nyssa soon.

Mrs. T. Olson and sons Leonard, Elmer and Harold made a business trip to Nampa Monday.

OWYHEE
By MRS. JIM HITE

An educational and entertaining program commemorating the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington was given at the Owyhee school house Friday afternoon. The sandtable depicting "Life at Mt. Vernon," and the attractive window and room decorations added to the spirit of the occasion.

The following program was given: songs by the school; Stories of Lincoln by Grace Kygar; Lincoln's Gettysburg Address by Juanita Culbertson; Excerpts from the Life of Washington, by Patricia Marvin; Making a Flag, by fourteen lower grade children; Song by school; Our Flag, exercise by first grade; Recitation by Lula Belle; Reading by Colleen Connaughy; Recitation by James Franklin; Washington by Ileta Franklin; "My Trip to Washington D. C. and Mt. Vernon," illustrated with pictures, by Mrs. Abbot; Folk Dances, Virginia Reel, French Minuet, by school.

Erna Kershner of Homedale is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lou Pratt this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Yraquan of Parma were visitors at the John Plaza home Monday.

Otto Wolf called on the K. K. Ickell family Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Marshall visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oee Eshweiler Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larson and son of Big Bend and Mr. and Mrs. Don Morgan spent Sunday with the Grover Douglas family.

Two families from Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Hobb with three children and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wolf with twelve children, moved to their new homes just north of Mitchell butte last week.

Mrs. James Langton visited her daughter Mrs. Herbert Hoxie several days of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schweizer were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Hite.

Rhoda Smith of Nyssa enjoyed the week end with the H. H. Hint children.

The Russell Patton family visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeGroff of Oregon Trail Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Plaze attended the chivari and housewarming for Mr. and Mrs. Sid Flannagan Saturday evening.

Glenn McGinnis is staying at the Wm. Peutz home while he and Werner Peutz are jointing pipe at Dunaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jungquist of Wilder were all day visitors at the Silas Bigelow home Monday.

A special PTA meeting will be held at the schoolhouse, Friday March 5. This is an important business meeting and everyone is urged to come.

The Donald McGinnis family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Jim McGinnis.

Charles Schweizer was a business visitor in Parma and Ontario Monday.

Folk dancing as taught by Mrs. Chas. Schweizer and Mrs. Abbott is given an enthusiastic response by the Owyhee school children. This form of exercise not only takes care of leisure time during bad weather but teaches the children grace and a sense of rhythm.

Mrs. Klingback and son Fred made a trip to Vale and Payette last Wednesday. They stayed overnight at the DeBord home in Payette.

The Chas. Culbertson family and Dorothy McClure were Sunday guests at the C. H. Bennet home on the new land.

Kenneth McDonald from Homedale is making a weeks visit with his mother Mrs. Fred Klingback while he is recovering from a sprained ankle injured while playing basketball.

Kenneth McDonald and Mrs. Fred

Klingback called on Mr. and Mrs. Tom Low Monday evening.

The Klingbacks gave a supper in honor of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culbertson Tuesday. Guests besides those honored were Dorothy McClure and Betty Culbertson.

The Atwoods who live on the Tom Low land next to the high line canal, accompanied by his neighbors Smith and Mettlin, attended the sale at Looney's in Big Bend Monday.

Mr. Arthur Mayes is hauling lumber from Adrian with which to build living quarters adjacent to the Lowe home at Mitchell Butte Hot Springs.

In our last weeks item quite a mistake was made in regard to the quantity of ice that Tom Low put in his ice house during the ice harvest. His ice house holds about 12 tons, instead of two, and is now nearly full. Tom says if it gets as hot this summer as it did last summer he wants a cool place where his afternoons can be spent in comfort.
