Greatest Race Horses

Although Eclipse, foaled in England in 1764, is considered to be the greatest horse in racing history because he won every one of his 20 races and sired 344 winners, the "unbeaten" record belongs to Kin seen, foaled in Hungary in 1874. This mare, writes Arthur C. Norris, Chicago, Ill., in Collier's Weekly, won 57 consecutive important races, an achievement never equaled.
