Stepping Stones in Life—of a Large Family

Mr. James Masse (left), shown with 15 of his 21 children, outside their home at Goderich, Ontario, shortly after the birth of his twenty-first child. Every one of the children born to the couple is still living either at home or within a few miles of his birthplace. According to the father "all 21 are alive and there is not a bad leg or a crooked eye in the whole bunch! All are healthy and sound." This is believed a record for a family living on the American continent.
