GUESS WHO—

A freshman, who is an outstanding athlete, a good sport, and a popular student. He attended Nyssa grade school and is now enrolled in high school.—Stanley Ray.

We all know her, because it would not be fun without her. Her hobby is Raymond Graham. Her dislike is Bookkeeping. She's a Sophomore and a GAA girl. Oh!—Ann Johnson.

The vice president of our student body and "more fun." She is a GAA girl, a Junior, popular with the students and has a very good scholastic record.—Irene Poage.

The president of our student body, a senior, and an all around boy in our high school. Well of course its Lloyd Wilson.

Boise Payette's financial department will finance that home for you with an F. H. A. loan. This flexible plan permits you to literally arrange your own terms above a certain minimum.

Only one-fifth down, including the value of your lot, is required. By lengthening the time of the mortgage, or by increasing the minimum down payment, or by a combination of both, you can fix the size of your payment to fit your budget requirements.

Up to twenty years time is allowed, and the monthly payment includes interest, taxes, insurance, and reduction of the principal. The one payment relieves you of all financial worry. It is as simple as paying rent.

Boise Payette will gladly give you complete details of the F. H. A. plan, as it applies to your individual case, without obligation. Let the Building Bug bite you!
