

KINGMAN KOLONY
By MRS. C. E. ELLIOTT

Mrs. Kathryn Claypool, county school superintendent, and Miss Olson, county librarian, visited Kingman school Thursday.

Dan Gallagher has moved his sheep from his ranch here to his ranch at Beulah.

Walter Bach, who has been attending school at Gooding stopped at the J. G. Lane home Friday.

His mother, Mrs. Bach accompanied him to his home at Prairie City for a visit.

Miss Dorothy Winters was a week end guest of Miss Nellie Case of Big Bend.

John Govey and sons Lester and Joe spent Easter Sunday at their home here. They are employed at Emmett.

Easter services were well attended Sunday. One hundred and twenty-five being present. The program given by the children and adults was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Nichols superintendent, wishes to thank all of those who helped with the lunch and also all who helped to make the day a decided success.

Mrs. Helen Zeisler, Mrs. Ernest Zeisler and Jennie, Martha Godwin and Mrs. Dederickson were Boise visitors Saturday.

The Wm. Stradley family were visitors in the C. E. Winters home Monday.

The Kitchen Stars, 1st division cooking, demonstrated the making of popovers at their regular meeting Thursday.

The girls were very sorry to lose their president Geraldine Reese, who has moved to McEwen. Oregon Geraldine will complete her club work at McEwen.

Mrs. M. M. Greeling and Mrs. J. B. Smith of Nyssa attended the regular meeting of the Vale PTA at Vale Tuesday evening.

Owing to the number of Mondays in March the regular meeting of the grange will be April 12th. The HEC will meet with Mrs. Dale Ashcraft Tuesday April 6th.

The regular meeting of the PTA will be postponed from April 2nd to April 9th, as teachers and parents wish to attend the declamatory contest in Vale April 3rd.

Newell Heights

Honoring a man who has been very closely connected with the building of the Vale-Owyhee project for a good many years and thru this work has won the respect and admiration of all who have had any dealings with him because of his fairness and the personal interest he has shown each individual of this part of the project petitioned to be called Newell Heights.

Bill Wood of Cour de'Alene, Ida., was an over night guest at the Lou Eachus home, stopping enroute to Hot Lake where he will take treatment for an injury received in a car wreck last Fourth of July. His mother, Mrs. Emma Wood owns the ranch leased by Mr. E. P. Gheen and they lived here two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Boersma and children of Nyssa were business visitors to their ranch Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Crill of Nampa were in the project on business Thursday afternoon. They own a forty which they hope to lease to some neighbor.

The club formed by the ladies on the new project met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Williams. This club was organized for the purpose of helping the ladies to get better acquainted. They meet the last Tuesday of every month. Mrs. Williams was kind enough to share her flower plants with the members.

Those from among the neighbors who were in attendance at the Easter exercises and dinner were the D. L. Andersons, H. Williams, M. L.
