GREETINGS FOLKS: Home's ain't bought like automobiles; to be traded in for a new one every two or three years. When you build, make your home a lasting one... in comfort, livability, and beauty.

—BUILD FHA WAY—
A physician presented his bill to the executor of the estate of a deceased patient.

"Do you wish to have my bill sworn to?" he asked.
"No," answered the executor, "the death of the patient is sufficient evidence of your services."

—BUILD FHA WAY—
Before a man's married he's a dude; after marriage he's subdued. Before marriage he has no buttons on his shirt; after marriage he has no shirt. Before marriage he swears that he would not marry the best woman in the world; after marriage he finds that he hasn't.

—BUILD FHA WAY—
Nyssa needs more homes, and it's no secret that lumber prices are rising the same as everything else. It is smart business to build now before more price raises.
