THE BEST STAGE SHOWS IN TOUR TO-DAY. Come Early!

Mrs. Andrew McGinnis has been quite ill the past week and confined to her home.

Mrs. Warren Blodgett and Mrs. Tom Burton were Ontario and Payette visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Graves and son Archie made a trip to Boise Saturday.

Girls! Do you want a husband? Be at the Oregon Trail School house Friday April 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Beam spent Sunday visiting relatives in the Boise valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Higginson, who have been living in Denver the past few months in Denver, returned to Nyssa last Thursday and Mr. Higginson will be employed again at the bureau of reclamation office for a few months. At present they are living at the Will Beam home.

Kids around town are reaping a harvest of scrap iron, and several times a day, members of the younger generation can be seen hauling a toy wagon load to the Second Hand store. Such ambition is to be admired, but it might be well to caution parents to inform their young people that sometimes there is iron which looks like scrap to the youngsters but is really valuable. In order to avoid trouble, it is always best to ask, no matter how worthless the scrap may look.

Mrs. George McKee visited Sunday with relatives in Wilder.

Mrs. C. W. Rice and daughter Jewel Rice Choate made a business trip to Burns Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Newby are now at Huntington, where Mr. Newby has employment. Mrs. Newby left for her new home Monday.

Mrs. C. W. Rice went to Caldwell Tuesday to visit with his brother, Rev. B. W. Rice, who has been quite ill, and who is still confined to his bed.

Dwight Johnston spent the week end with his mother Mrs. Lucille Johnston and family. Dwight is now employed in the Van Petten Lumber Co., office in Ontario.

Mr. Frank Parr of Oregon Trail began his duties as teacher in the Valse high school, taking the place of Pat Brown who resigned to take a better position in the Nampa Junior high.

Lucille Benton was a week end guest of Miss LaVern Latham of Boise. The Latham's who formerly operated the Kozy Cafe here, are planning to move to Minnesota soon.

Bicycles repaired and sold at Parker's Ontario, Oregon. Adv. 4-1c

Among those who enjoyed visiting at the local CCC camp on Sunday, the first day of their open house week, celebrating the anniversary of the CCC camps, were Mr. and Mrs. George Bertsch, Mrs. Hazel Gildea and son Theron, Alvin, Thelma and Robert Root, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns.

Mrs. C. L. McCoy, daughter Gayle and Omar Adkinson returned Wednesday after a short visit in Pendleton. They left Sunday morning, arriving in La Grande in time for church services. While in Pendleton Omar visited his parents at their ranch home and Mrs. McCoy and Gayle visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Marshall Spell.

Easter dinner guests at the Felton Duncan home were Mr. and Mrs. John Mull and family. Other callers through the day were Mrs. James Duncan of Blackfoot, Idaho, who surprised the family by coming Easter for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Less Felton of Payette, Mrs. Mary Felton and Mrs. Binkley were also visitors.
