isfactory meeting Friday afternoon. After an instructive and entertain ing talk on Holland by Mrs. Garret Stam, the members voted to send two "follow up" 4-H club members to Corvallis for summer school and to sponsor a dinner for play day at Vale, May 7. This means they will plan dinner for at least 80 persons. The PTA is also sponsoring Boy and Girl Scouts and the Dramatic club at present.

Owyhee PTA with 27 paid up members sent four delegates, Mesdames Abbott, Klingback, Schweizer and Fauchier to the County Council at Annex Saturday. They enjoyed the lecture given by Rev. Chandler of Weiser on "The Good Old Days.' The delegates will give a detailed account of the Council, at the next PTA meeting.

Mrs. Charles Schweizer of Owvhee and Mrs. H. A. Conner of Annex were voted the outstanding4-H clubleaders in the county. This entitles them to a free trip to Cor-
