High School News

A student body meeting was held Friday morning. Letters were presented to Jack Doolittle and Nellie Jean Schweizer, school yell leaders. The Sophomores entertained the student body with a short play, a reading and songs. Those in the play included Hollis DeGroff, Leola Truelson, Gloria Glascock, Raymond Warren, Joe Robertson, Bonnie Matlock, Doris Hite, Houston Wilson, Frank Pompe, Dudley Mausling, Juanita Franklin gave a reading, "The Usual Way." A girl's trio composed of Bonnie Matlock, Ruth Planary and Joyce Ashcraft and a boys trio composed of Clarence Enos, Frank Pompe and Merle Kurtz each sang a number. They were accompanied by Margaret Klingback. Kathleen Clowers introduced each of the numbers.

Sally Fillingsness was a visitor at school Tuesday. Did any of Meredith Seits' cigars show up at school Tuesday? Grades came out Wednesday. Six more weeks, now. The men teachers attended a schoolmasters meeting in Emmett Thursday night. The question is "How well will the school softball team fare in the town league?" The public speaking class carried on a 'mock' meeting Wednesday 'trying' to get some experience in parliamentary law. The student body and school board are planning to purchase a new sound and motion picture machine for use in classrooms and at student gatherings.

Donald and Mary Leuck of Baker were visitors at the school Monday. Grace and Mary Hibbard from Kingman Colony were visitors at the school Friday. The girls league met Friday noon to elect a new president. Irene Poage won from Lucille Trasher in a close vote. Ray Strickland returned to school Monday after an absence of more than a week.

Some of the biology students plan to go on a collecting trip this Saturday. We Wonder Why— Betty Schweizer was so worried last week. Don McCoy's lip is cut. If Betty Schweizer and Bonnie Matlock are really working Friday afternoon.

More fun! The freshman history classes went on a "sit down" strike Tuesday. Mary had a little lamb. What did Loren Earnest have in Monday one o'clock study hall—a horn toad! Cute? My yes! And a freshman at that. Bushy hair, wears glasses and is sorta thick with two junior boys, laughs and giggles in Health Ed. Why? Why certainly! Peggy Sills. A nice good looking plump junior girl. Is very studious. Has black hair and blue eyes. Sometimes better known in study hall as "sugarplum." Absolutely—Rena Mitchell. We wonder some more— Why they call Miss Retty "Stonewall." Why Joe Robertson was so happy in one o'clock study hall. Why Miss MacDonald has been so busy telling fortunes. Why Luella Leuck was so sleepy Monday. Why Hazel Huffman gets off from the bus at Oregon Trail now. Why Charles Short got a ticket to study hall Monday. Why Dale Bingman doesn't shave off his mustache.

JORDAN VALLEY
By MRS ISABELLE LEE

Mrs. Maskey, who has been visiting relatives near Portland for the past two months returned last Monday. W. S. Maher left for Boise last Tuesday. Shirley Scoggins came from The Buckskin Mine last Monday. He returned Tuesday. Mrs. Scoggins and children who have been visiting at the Long home returned with him. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCain who have been spending the winter in Arizona returned home Tuesday. John S. Conway and Boyd E. Blakely made a business trip to Vale Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Leyton of Boise visited Mrs. Leyton's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Noble last week. They returned home Sunday. Henry Nickle who has been herding sheep for John Archabal was brought to town suffering from spotted fever. Wednesday Pete Laca took him to a Nampa hospital. He is reported to have a mild case. Jim Mills went to the Warn ranch last Thursday returning Saturday. Axel Lingen went to Cliffs to build a chimney in their new school house. Miss Lois Persneth accompanied by her father went to Cliffs Saturday. Miss Persneth will teach there this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones of Caldwell spent the week end at the Jack Dunning home. Everett Jones has gone to Hagerman where he is employed by Morrison-Knudsen Co. Fernando Madariaga who has been ill for the past week was taken to a Nampa hospital by Pete Laca Thursday. He is reported to be improving.

Tuesday morning the farmers rejoiced over the fact that they found water in the main laterals. That means water to bring up the crops that need more moisture in the ground and water to put on the alfalfa and clover fields to hurry these crops along. Mrs. Harvey McLaughlin and children returned home Sunday after having spent a week visiting relatives in Caldwell and Nampa. The Young People of the Sunday School and their friends enjoyed a scavenger hunt Friday night. Five car loads of young folks took part. Most of the articles were found except a "sky-hook" which they are still looking for. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denny made a business trip to Caldwell Saturday and while there purchased seven young guernsey calves which they will feed out. Dr. Barlow who owns a 200 acre ranch here has purchased another 160 on Dead Ox Flat. Miss Crummett was out of school three days due to illness. Mrs. Maurice Judd substituted for her. The sixth, seventh and eighth grade room was dismissed at noon proving. Mrs. Frank Swisher of Danner was in Jordan Friday en route to Boise for a short visit with relatives. Local truckmen hauled four truck loads of fat cows to Nampa Saturday for George S. Parks. Mrs. Walter Bowden of Rome was in town Saturday to get a shipment of baby chicks from a hatchery at Corvallis. Father Dillohenty of Baker held services at St. Bernard's church Sunday. D. C. Wells of Pendleton has been inspecting the ION route and buying rights of way from owners of patented land. Tom Lillibe of Wallowa a bridge contractor made a trip over the proposed route inspecting bridge sites. Misses Ruby and Agnes Maher, Peggy Shea, Charlotte Mills and Louise Panseri accompanied by J. R. Morgan, Frank Maher and Mark Morgan drove to Murphy Saturday evening and attended the dance there, returning Sunday. They report a very nice time. At the Malheur County musical held last Saturday in Ontario and conducted by Mr. Laxson of the musical department of the Ontario school, the Jordan Valley grade school was represented by six pupils of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades. Their teacher Miss Ewing and their accompanist Mrs. Neal Shea accompanied them. Delhenia and Dora Yturraspe and Virginia Elordi sang a trio entitled "Eventide." For an encore they sang "Beautiful River." Delhenia and Dora Yturraspe sang in the advanced chorus. Milly Ross, Jimmie Shea Geraldine Palmer and Virginia Elordi sang in the intermediate chorus. Mrs. Sam Ross took them to Ontario Friday where they stayed at the Moore Hotel. They returned Saturday by way of Caldwell. All reported a wonderful time. The Harold Gluch family, Mr. and Mrs. Bas Deary, Mrs. Lee and the Joe Gluch family drove to the Owyhee dam Sunday. After spending some time at the dam, they drove to the park where a delicious picnic lunch was enjoyed. All voted it a wonderful sight and a worthwhile trip. Monday the contract for the Union High School gym at Jordan Valley was let to Johanson and son of Parma, contractors. Work will be started as soon as the material can be delivered.

Tuesday to let six pupils take part in the spelling contest at Nyssa. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Russell of Hollywood, California, called at the Lou Eachus and M. L. Kurtz homes Friday morning. Mr. Russell was here on business connected with his ranch near the Pfeiler ranch and called on a few of his fathers friends while here. His father is quite well and anxious to make another trip to Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz were Ontario visitors Tuesday. En route they made a drive over part of the new project across the river north of the Owyhee. The new project certainly makes an interesting study. You come home feeling your crops look maybe a little better and possibly better than you imagined it did. Mrs. Duvall was an all day guest of Mrs. D. L. Anderson on Wednesday. In the afternoon they called on Mrs. Kurtz, as did Mesdames Harris, Eachus and Deffenbach.
