Mexicans Here For Beet Work

First contingent of Mexican beet field workers arrived in Nyssa Wed- and grades Monday afternoon benesday morning when 124 entrained fore the Ontraio meeting. from two special cars and a baggage car coupled to the Pacific Limited. The men are from Califor- Chas. Paradis, Messrs. and Mesnia and drawn principally from the Sacramento and Stockton area, where beet thinning work is about completed. They were in charge of Mr. Squires, cashier of the Ogden Play Day In factory.

The men are being housed in the twelve new tent houses constructed by the beet company and fed in the company mess hall. Part of the men were removed to the country Wednesday and will be housed by the beet growers. By the end of the week all of the Mexicans are expected to be distributed to various growers, and to make room for another shipment of 125 expected to arrive Sunday.

Work of thinning beets, and lettuce; weeding onions, lettuce and beets will require a regular army of workmen in the Nyssa territory this summer and fall. The pea harvest will also mean employment of additional hundreds, and there should be work for all nationalities this summer. Several carloads of Pilipino labor arrived last week for employment in beet fields and many white families are ready to go into the beet fields when thinning starts

The labor bill on beets alone, including thinning, hoeing and harvesting operations is expected to means a payroll mounting to nearly $200,000 for the district.

AN ANSWER TO PED-

Here's an effective answer to the gib tongued smooth peddler, who with the return of prosperity, is coming in iroves to offer stockings, hardware, photographs, vardown the long list, to the unsuspecting:

"I earn my living in Nyssa and I am duty bound to spend most of my money here. I like to deal with friends and neighbors who pay taxes, contribute to various worthy undertakings and help build up the community."

Incidentally it might be added that there are some people who perhaps won't publicly admit it, but secretly wish they had given such an answer to peddlers who recently visited this city

It's always a good idea to at least know by reputation the man you trust with your

Ontario Eagles

The Crystal Ballroom, Oniario Maria McElroy the Eagles lodge, went up smoke early Wednesday morning in a blaze which not only entirely destroyed the hall, but threated to spread to other buildings in

A high wind hampered efforts of the firemen, who were hard pressed to prevent the fire from spreading. Burning shingles were carried as far as a quarter of a mile, and many Ontario residents were kept patrolling streets and alleys to extinguish small fires. The firemen were able to confine the blaze to the one building.

The lodge estimated its loss in excess of $2,000, including the partially insured building, lodge paraphenalia, and the drum and bugle corps uniforms and equipment.

Boundary Board Grants Permission At Monday Meeting Held At Vale

Prel minary steps leading toward building of a high school at Adrian were made Monday when the County Boundary Board met in Vale. The heard acted on petitions from Owy-hee, Kingman, Wade and Big Bend district asking for permission to build a high school at Adrian.

A remonstrance was filed, and if it had been allowed, would have brought the matter to a vote. However the board threw the remonsrance out on the grounds that it daho-Oregon League season for did not contain the necessary 10 qualified names. Present at the Boundary Board meeting was Commissioners Clark and Peterson, and County School Superintendent Kathryn Claypool. Judge Graham was not present at the meeting.

The petition was granted and a temporary board of directors named consisting of Russell Patton from Owyhee; Maurice Judd from Kingman Kolony; Claude Eachus from Wade; Harry Russell from Big Bend and Thos. Welsh named director at

Some members from the Owyhee district called in Vale Tuesday and presented objections to having the remonstrance tabled and the matter will likely come up for further discussion at the meeling of the County Court next Wednesday.

Pomana Grange Meets At Annex

"Let us be friendly with ourselves our family and Grange. We should ove our Grange for what it is doing by Mrs. Mary Lundell, State Home Economics Chairman of the Oregon Married Tues. State Grange, in the main address of the Pomona Grange meeting at Annex Saturday. The Snake River Grange was hostess. Mrs. Lundell emphasized further. "At times we feel discouraged and feel that our work is not appreciated. But let us remember that although we are not told in words that our work is far reaching; the satisfaction we have in work well done should be our compensation." Mr. R. G. Larson, county agent, gave an interesting talk in which he pointed out that the Granges of Malheur County have an important work to do, and that is, interesting the people of the new lands in Grange work. Mr. Larson emphasized the fact that the people of Malheur County must extend a friendly hand to these people, rather than they extend a hand to us.

The morning session consisted of reports from various sub-ordinate granges and from Pomona officers. The meeting was conducted by J. Edwin Johnson, Pomona Master.

A special committee named by the Pomona master reported a plan of an attendance drive in the subordinate Granges. The committee consisted of Dottie Edwards of the Boulevard Grange, Albert Hopkins of the Oregon Trail Grange, and Paul Bedsaul of Snake River Grange.

The committee on membership reported the division of various (Continued on last page.)
