MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The local Girl Scout troop sponsored a Mother-Daughter banquet which was given Friday evening in the study hall at the high school with about fifty-five mothers and daughters attending. Spring flowers were used as centerpieces for the tables and very attractive place cards and nut cups, made by the Scouts, were miniature Girl Scouts holding a Scout emblem. The three-course banquet was served by the fathers of the Scouts, with Mr. Leo Hollenberg in charge of the kitchen, and Wm. Schreman, Wesley Browne, Dick Tensen and Grant Rinehart being the waiters.

Miss Elaine Handsaker of Vale acted as toastmistress and in opening the program gave a talk on the "Origin of Scouting." Following this Phyllis Schreman gave a toast to the "Mothers"; with Mrs. John Page giving the response to the "Daughters." Louise Tensen presented a flag to the Vale troop, which was accepted by Miss Handsaker in behalf of the Vale Scouts; Marjorie Groot gave a humorous reading and the program closed with the singing of Scout songs.

THURSDAY PARTY

Mesdames Howard Larsen and Ray Emmott were co-hostesses with a delightful party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emmott. The rooms were prettily decorated with painted daisies and irises.
