4-H BENEFIT DINNER TO BE GIVEN AT BIG BEND PARK ON JUNE 2

A 4-H club benefit dinner will be given at Big Bend Park on Wednesday, June 2nd, starting at six o'clock, according to announcement this week. Besides the dinner there will be a program, games and other features to raise funds to send two delegates to the 4-H summer school at Corvallis.

Delegates to the summer school from Big Bend community this year will be Betty Jean Eachus and Gladys Sparks. The delegates are chosen by a committee, assisted by Club Leader Hauser.

OREGON TRAIL P. T. A. TO SEND 4-H MEMBERS TO SUMMER SCHOOL

Winners of the 4-H club scholarships to Corvallis summer school sponsored by the Oregon Trail P. T. A. were announced Friday at a picnic dinner held the last day of school. Madona Kressly will go from the sewing club, Mary Jean Rookstool from the cooking club and Vance Smith from the calf club.

Meetings of the Oregon Trail P. T. A. will be held through the summer at various homes, with a social hour in charge of the program and hospitality committees besides the regular business meeting.

At the Friday meeting, a complete history of the local organization from its beginning in 1919 to the present was given by the historian, Mrs. F. G. Holmes. Other numbers on the program included the club song by the club boys and girls, and two girls from the cooking club, Loretta Mitchell and Betty Rookstool gave a demonstration of "necessity of accurate weights and measures for successful results in cooking." All clubs had some of their work on display.

In the apron contest between the boys and girls, the boys won with $6.63 while the girls patches held $3.75. Mrs. Robert Morfitt received the club quilt.

At the close of the club program the meeting adjourned to the school yard where three trees were plant-
