EVANGELISTIC NOTES

The closing days of the Nazarene tent meeting have been well attended and many people have been reached through the preaching and teaching of divine truth from the word of God. To God be the Glory. This week visitors from Vale and Adrian have come to take part and enjoy the services. Each nights service has been better than the preceeding evening. Evangelist Hester has proven a true servant of God and the people. We wish him success whereever he goes.

Friday night Rev. F. A. Powell, former pastor of our Church in Homedale, now in Evangelistic work preached for the first time in Nyssa. Text Heb. 9:27 "And as it is annointed unto men once to die but after this the judgment." Among other things Rev. Powell said, "There is two appointments all will meet on time, death and imme diately after this the judgment:' No time to prepare after death. As Ye live so shall ye die and meet

Dilly, also Mr. that seems to press heart so you daughter Evelyn of Caldwell. This sleep soundly all night. The Nyssa talented young couple pleased the large audience with several special numbers in song. Sunday School opened at 10:00 with 42 present. Then came a brief preaching service after which Evangelist H. S. Hester by authority from Supt. Glenn Griffeth, organized the Nyssa Church of the Nazarene with sixteen charter members. Rev. Hester then appointed Rev. V. W. Martin, formerly of Vale as pastor of the new church.

Sunday night after a fine young people service Evangelist Hester preached to a large crowd from Luke 16: 19-27. Text: "And besides all this there is a great gulf fixed so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence." Among other things Rev. Hester said, "This gulf between sinners and christians in this life extends on into eternity." "We cannot cross over now or ever except we accept the atonement of Christ the only thing that ever bridged this gulf. To be on Christ side in eternity we must confess, repent with Godly sorrow and make our peace with God in this world." He exhorted all "But lay up your treasurers in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt and where thieves do not break through and steal; Mathew 6:20. He concluded with, "You can take nothing with you from this world, shrouds do not Until further notice the services of the Church of the Nazarene will be held in the American Legion hall located one block west and 11/4 blocks north of the Methodist church.
