MALHEUR POMONA GRANGE

Ray Gill, Oregon State Grange Master, was the main speaker at the Pomona meeting held at the Big Bend Park Thursday. A large group was in attendance with all Granges of Malheur County having representatives present. Mr. Gill, handling the subject, "The Grange's March" pointed out the progress of the Grange through 71 years of service to farmers. The speaker mentioned equal suffrage, free rural mail delivery, regulation for transportation, school land grants, Smith-Hughes, and extension service and other important projects that the Grange has sponsored. "The Grange now is stronger than ever with 22,000 members in Oregon with 370 active Granges," stated Mr. Gill. Mr. Gill stressed the important legislative measures that will effect the Oregon farmer. The Grange at the present time is working for better rural education and is pioneering in the cooperative movement in Oregon.

W. W. Deal, Idaho State Grange

Master, was introduced to the group and spoke a few minutes on new legislation affecting the farmer.

The business sessions began at 10:00 A. M. with Pomona Master J. Edwin Johnson in charge. Officers of various Malheur County Granges reported. A resolution was passed to ask the state department to surface the highway from Adrian to the Idaho state line. Another resolution was passed demanding that the slot machines be removed from public buildings as provided by law.

The Boulevard Grange won the prize for having the best Home Economics Report for the quarter. The L.O.N. Grange won the prize for having the first report in Kingman Grange won the prize for having the largest number of members and guests present.

Dinner was served at the noon hour in the form of a picnic lunch. The hostesses were Big Bend and Kingman Granges.

Pomona Lecturer, Mrs. M. M. Greeling, had charge of the program which was well planned. The Nyssa Band gave several musical numbers and group singing was enjoyed. A group of ladies from the Oregon Trail Grange sang two numbers.

Snake River Grange

The Snake River Grange held its regular meeting Saturday July 24th. A large crowd attended the Grange picnic held at the Antrim ranch Sunday July 18th. Ice cream and a picnic lunch was served after the games which were planned for the group.

Snake River Grange

By Mrs. Carl Bedaul

The Snake River Grange had their regular meeting Tuesday evening July 20th. After the regular business a delightful program was given under the direction of the lecturer. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. Claude Ogilvie, report of 4-H Summer School by Margaret Smith, report of 4-H local leader by Mrs. H. A. Conner, a vocal duet by Antone Parkinson and Harvey Semple.

State Master Ray Gill and wife were present and the group enjoyed an interesting talk from them. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Oregon Trail Granges

By Mrs. Albert Hopkins

One of the largest groups since its organization attended at the last regular meeting. Plans have worked out whereby the school district will allow the use of the school basement as a grange hall. The new piano was dedicated to the grange after music from the H.E.C.

The lecturer's program hinged on 4-H club work. The five 4-H Club members that attended the Corvallis summer school were the high lights of the program and gave very interesting talks. Vance Smith talked on the Boy's Class Work; Mary June Rookstool, Girl's Glass Work; Dewey Thomason, Boy's Recreation; Madonna Kressly, Girl's Recreation; and Frankie Wilson, The Visit to the Ocean. W. J. Wilcox and V. F. Livesay of the Oregon Grange Co-operative were present and gave instructive talks and answered questions from the group. Frank Sherwood of the Boulevard Grange introduced these men and gave a short talk afterward.

After the program refreshments were served.

The Oregon Trail Grange H.E.C. met at the home of Mrs. Frank Burke in their regular meeting. Howard Larson gave a talk on Aluminum. A large group of ladies were present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Orrin Chot with Mrs. Chot and Mrs. R. Cornell as hostesses.
