KINGMAN KOLONY

By MRS. C. E. ELLIOTT

Miss Jeanette Martin has returned to her home here from Genesee Idaho where she has been visiting relatives.

Among those who left Wednesday morning for summer camp at Payette Lakes are Mrs. Conrad Martin, Mrs. M. M. Greeling, Mrs. Allan Curtis, Mrs. Dale Ashcraft, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Thrasher.

Much construction work is being done on the Kingman School house. Owing to the increased enrollment it has become necessary to make additional room. This is being done by remodeling the east end of the basement. The south side has been opened and made into one very large window. The entrance on the east end has been widened and now leads straight in, in place of the turn which was there before. The desks are also receiving a coat of varnish. Three teachers will be installed in this building this year.

Miss Joy Crummett and her mother Mrs. Bob Crummett were calling on friends in Adrian Friday.

The 4-H Canning and Home-making club held a joint meeting at the home of Emily Otis Friday afternoon. During the Home-making meeting Mrs. Otis lead a discussion on the various types of period furniture. She had from the library five very interesting books, showing the pictures of furniture from the very first to be made up to the modern furniture of to-day.

Following the Home-making meeting the girls held their canning meeting with Mrs. M. L. Kurtz in charge. Margaret Winters and Lucille Thrasher demonstrated the making of crab apple jelly.

W. T. Godwin purchased a '33 Ford V8 in Ontario Saturday.

Miss Martha Godwin has just returned from a visit with her Grandfather Godwin in Seattle.

The Sunday School is having a picnic August 20 on the lawn at the Kingman school house.

MALHEUR JUNIOR LEAGUE

TEAM LOSES AT WOODBURN

The Malheur county American Legion Junior league ball team lost out in the state tournament at Woodburn last week end in two straight games. Saturday the local team met Roseburg and were noosed out by 7 to 9 count. Sunday they played Estacada and again lost, this time by 6 to 2 count.

Winner of the state title was the Postoffice Pharmacy team of Portland who breezed through the tournament with to 10 to 0 win over Estacada and won from Roseburg by a 18 to 1 count. This team will go to Yakima to play for Northwest honors.

Boys from Nyssa on the Malheur team are Mausing and Graham. In the game with Estacada, Graham had the pitching assignment and while holding them to three hits; errors were too plentiful to win.

While losing in the state tournament, the local team made a fine record for the season and worked up to where they had to play Hood River for the right to enter state tournament. Stanley Mulliken of Ontario was coach and gave freely to his time and ability in whipping the championship team into shape.

WHEN ONE WHEEL RUNS OFF PAVEMENT

When one wheel runs off the pavement, take the foot off the accelerator and allow the car to slow down gradually until it can be brought back into the road easily, without par or sway, advises the Oregon State Motor association.

CARD OF THANKS

We deeply appreciate the kindness and help during the time of our great sorrow and want to especially mention the helpfulness of the K. S. & D. ladies, the comforting message of Rev. White and the quartette; the aid of the pall bearers and the many floral offerings of friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Harold Schrader and son. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schrader and sons.

Advice To The Road-Worn

E. W. PRUYN, Auto Repair, Nyssa, Oregon.

Gentlemen:

I am a poor working-car, and am keeping company with a man who doesn't understand us automobiles. I heard about your garage from a friend, and wonder if you can help me.

Tearfully, Anxious Lizzie.

Dear Anxious Lizzie:

From your letter we can see you are not that kind of a car. Of course we can help you.

Your run-down condition has made you nervous. A little working over and you can stand all sorts of abuse from the boy friend.

Sincerely, E. W. PRUYN, Auto Repair
