

Oregon Fishing News

DESCUTES RIVER—Fair to good most of the way. The nearest point to Bend is Harper Bridge where spinners have been used with success; also trolling from a boat. Mostly German Browns. Below Sheep Bridge and above or below Wikipup is good on most anything.

METOLIUS RIVER—Fish rising to bucktails or small grey flies early in the afternoon. Some of the big one weigh 2 1/2 pounds. The LOWER METOLIUS has been reported good on a fly but we haven't any dope on the kind of fly used to make the best catches.

CROOKED RIVER—Just moderate morning and evening on either mosquito or salmon eggs.

CRESCENT LAKE—Reported rising again—this time to trout onres.

DAVIS LAKE—Still erratic. The fish bite the best during the early morning and evening if there is a ruffle on the lake. No riffs—no fish. The best lure used is a grey hackle.

DIAMOND LAKE—Not quantity but quality here. In other words, one doesn't get his limit everytime out but the ones he gets are big and worth the try. No. 10 bucktail caddis, grey hackle and sometimes a black gnat will do the work. Mostly evening fishing.

ELK LAKE—Mr. Wilcox says the fishermen are hauling them out two at a time on flies. This lake is always unusually good just before the season closes so dash up now and get what you want. MUD Lake fair or a little better.

EAST LAKE—Another week and East Lake still going strong. Everyone reports well fishing here. Some dandies were taken on troll the other evening. Spinners and worms will reach the big ones during the day and flies get the best results in the evening.

PAULINA LAKE—You can get them either by boat or from the shore most any time of the day although mid-afternoon and evening is best. Caddis bucktail and blue upright preferred. Marshall Hunt caught six nice ones on a fly fishing from the north shore.

THREE CREEK LAKE—Fly or troll although we haven't been told what kind of fly to use. Producing good catches from either boat or shore.

SPARKS LAKE—Good at last. Especially good if using a boat. Can get your limit on a caddis bucktail or ginger quill early in the morning and that means from about 7:00 to 9:00 a. m. Not so good if one has to wade.

SUTTLE LAKE—Unusual—sometimes you catch 'em and sometimes you don't.

FLASH—Berwyn Coyner made a trip into Taylor Burn (where all the little lakes are, you know) the other day and returned with the following good news: The big rainbows are biting in the Quinn Lakes and Rainbow Lake—some of them 24 inches long, caught on fly. The catch to this FLASH is that the road into Taylor Burn is rough and there is a three to six mile hike added to that into most of the lakes. The best lakes to fish are those across the canyon following the Blair Lake trail.

Oh, Oh, we almost forgot the WEATHER... it's been somewhat so that no one mentions it as they do when we have an occasional shower.—Furnished by the Bend Chamber of Commerce.

Stars In Round-Up Drama

Cowboys, cowgirls, Indians, broncs and steers will be co-starred in the staging of the Round-Up drama at Pendleton, Oregon, September 16, 17 and 18. At top—a vicious buckner, maddened by the rattle of spurs, leaps skyward with all four feet in air; succeeds in dislodging one cowboy boot from the stirrup. Middle—five dark-eyed Indian maidens who will compete in the American Beauty contest, only one of its kind in the world. Prizes are offered for the loveliest full-blood, long-haired Indian girls. At bottom—five authentic Indian chiefs give their war-cries in the Westward Ho! parade. This mighty cavalcade will wind through Pendleton streets Friday, Sept. 17, at 10 a. m. Besides thousands of mounted riders, the parade includes every pioneer vehicle of the Old West. One hundred spotted horses will comprise one division, and heading it will be Mayor Joe Carson of Portland, and Mayor C. L. Llewellyn of Pendleton.

MALHEUR COUNTY TO BE REPRESENTED IN CONSTITUTION PROGRAM

Portland, Sept. 16—(Special)—Announcement that Malheur county will be represented in the Constitution Day program to be held here Friday, September 17, as part of the statewide convention of the Oregon Republican club was made today by Lowell C. Pagent, president of the G. O. P. organization.

Pagent name as Malheur county member of a Constitution Day committee, E. Otis Smith of Ontario.

The Constitution Day program will be held in the Lincoln high school auditorium at 8:30 P. M. with Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, keynote of the 1936 Republican national convention, as the speaker of the evening.

Pagent has called upon branches of the Republican club in all sections of the state to move upon Portland for the two days of the convention, Friday and Saturday, September 17 and 18, to sound a cry for the 1938 elections.

Controversial resolutions, with the future policies of the Republican party as the issue, are expected to make their appearance on the convention floor. A liberal bloc has threatened to split the convention wide open to get its beliefs on record.

The convention will open Friday at 10 A. M. with registration and appointment of committees. There will be round table discussions by leading speakers from various counties. After luncheon there will be more round table discussions followed by dinner.

On Saturday the convention will resume at 10 A. M. to consider resolutions, reports and elections.

There will be golf and other activities in the afternoon, with the convention coming to a climax with a cabaret in the Multnomah hotel. There will be dancing and regular cabaret entertainment.
