REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN

On last Thursday the Rebekahs entertained the Odd Fellows with a very lively party. It was called Major Solomon's Hour and from all reports the talent displayed was unusual and seldom found outside the great urban centers.

The North End Warblers were one of the first on and very shortly received the gong from Major Solomon, but this did not discourage them from continuing and rendering a second offering.

Mrs. Arthur Cook also was most obliging with a unique piano solo which, it is reported led to the discussion of 'What Is Music Anyway.' Besides these two outstanding features there were several more that everyone enjoyed, and refreshments and general good time followed.

Those members comprising the Warblers were Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Esther Lawrence, Mrs. Angie Cook, and Mrs. Alma Wilson. The committee in charge was Mrs. Jack Ruby Robertson, Mrs. Alma Wilson, Hunter, Mrs. Esther Lawrence, Mrs. Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Pinkerton.

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows extend a most cordial invitation to all members of their organization who are living in this district and are affiliated with their organization in other places, to come to their meetings and to join in their social activities.
