

DOES YOUR FAMILY HAVE FUN TOGETHER?

Ways and means and the spirit of fun in the family was the subject of an informal panel discussion at Kingman Colony P.T.A. Friday at the Adair school. Those serving the panel were Mrs. Maurice Judd, Mrs. Charles Newbill, Mrs. Jesse Sugg and Mrs. Duane Anderson.

Mrs. James Lane told of the scope of P.T.A. activities stating that the work touches every phase of the child's life in home, school and community.

Remember this when you send your name and dues of forty cents to the membership chairman, Mrs. C. C. Cotton. The Governor of Oregon has set aside October 11-17 as P.T.A. membership week.

Miss Nelson reported interest and a nice response from the children for the McLoughlin membership fund.

Mrs. Ferris, county nurse, will lead a discussion on health at the next regular meeting at Colony school, November 5th. In the meantime P.T.A. will give its popular Halloween party for all October 29, and will participate in County Council in Ontario October 23.
