Published by Students of Nyssa High School

EDITORIAL—

Cooperation is a very admirable thing as it is being shown by both the teachers and students of the Nyssa schools.

We are glad the students are really settling down and beginning to study seriously even though the classes are over crowded, books late, and the music for chorus and orchestra slow in coming.

In spite of all of these inconveniences, the consensus of opinion seems to be that school is really worth while, that every one is working hard and getting the most possible out of his labor.

An opportunity to win for the school a new Philco Console Type Radio was given by Mr. R. T. Mallon the representative for the Curtis Publishing company Friday October 8.

Mr. Mallon met with the students and after an interesting talk organized the students into two competitive teams for selling Curtis magazines. The Green and Gold with Viola Pullen and Joe Robertson as captains; Miss Martin as business manager, Mr. Bailey as advisor for the Greens and Mrs. Young advisor for Gold.

One half of the proceeds of the sale goes to the school, with which they expect to buy the radio.

This is considered quite an opportunity since each student must sell only one subscription to the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies Home Journal or Country Gentleman to get the radio.

SOCIAL NEWS—

The high school girls Physical Education class met at the Methodist church, Wednesday after school for a hike and a werner roast. Miss Martin, the advisor, led the group. They hiked to the first railroad bridge then down to the river's edge for the feed. Each brought dimes to buy werners and buns.

The picnic ended at 6 o'clock so the girls from the country could catch the bus.

G.A.A. NEWS—

A regular G.A.A. meeting was held Tuesday October 4 in Miss Martin's room where the initiation of new members was discussed and a committee appointed to decide what they would have to do for membership.

Plans for the coming year were discussed, also the G.A.A. constitution. The point was stressed for everyone to be on time and pay her dues promptly.

A special meeting was held by the G.A.A. members Friday October 8 when the sweaters for this year were decided upon and requirements to get them discussed.

SUBSTITUTION FOR TEACHER—

Miss Morris was absent Friday, October 8 from her English classes due to a severe cold. Her place was taken by Mrs. Walter Rosebraugh.

—N. H. S.—

Junior High School has a new teacher this year, Miss Belnap, who is replacing Mr. Price. Miss Belnap graduated at Oregon State Normal in 1935 and taught two years at a school in Polk county near Salem. She teaches eight grade Social Science, seventh grade health and study hall; sixth grade reading, spelling, Girls Physical Education and art.

NYSSA DEFEATED BY FRUITLAND—

The Nyssa Bulldogs met defeat Friday on the Fruitland gridiron by a score of 12 to 0.

The Fruitland team took advantage of a blocked punt in the first quarter which put the ball on Nyssa's ten yard line. They then put the ball over by a series of end runs and line plunges. The second quarter was evenly fought with neither team having the advantage, while again in the third, the Idaho team put the ball over for a touchdown. The last quarter saw both teams fighting hard with neither able to score. The

—N. H. S.—

Nyssa team did not show the ability shown in the Parma or Wilder games. This is accounted for by the lack of practice due to absences of members of the team because of work in the harvest.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS YOU SHOULD KNOW—

Bill Kurtz—Has two year's experience at half-back and is filling the position at center. He weighs about 135 and is a good tackler on the line.

Jack (Mac) McKee—On his third year at half-back and end. He is a hard tackler and weighs about 125.

Wilson (Pete) Keck—Weighs about 145 and has played two years at guard. He is a good defensive man.

Jimmy Savage—Came from Eugene, Oregon. Weighs about 140 and plays halfback. He has made some nice runs for Nyssa around end and is noted for being a ten-second track man having won second in the hundred yard dash in the state.

Advice to Freshmen
Don't bring kittens to school; they may frighten the teachers.
Don't bring candy to school; the Sophomores may take it away from you.
Don't chew gum; it makes Mr. Parr hungry.

NYSSA SECOND STRING WINS AGAIN—
Nyssa second team defeated the Vale second team 12-2 Monday afternoon on the local gridiron. In the first half the Vale team seemed to have the edge on the sa boys. They made considerable yardage through the line as well as around the ends. Cenega and Blackburn starred for the visitors. The first half ended with both teams scoreless.

No doubt Coach John Young worked his boys over verbally between halves for Nyssa looked like a different team. They went down the field for their first touchdown but failed to convert the point. Vale trying desperately to score in the last minutes of play tossed a pass to Stanley Ray of Nyssa and Stanley scored standing up.

The Nyssa second team put on a demonstration of good blocking and tackling in the second half that made up for their indifferent play in the first half. Bill Kurtz and Jack McKee were outstanding in the 2nd team line while Kay Hara, Bill Pints, Gaston and Savage led the attack from the backfield.

Mahogany Long in Use

Contrary to popular opinion, mahogany was used many years before Chippendale and was mentioned in letters of Cortez to Phillip II as early as 1520.

$5 PRIZE

For Largest Sugar Beet Contest Ends Nov. 4, 1937

Baldrige Implement Co.

An OUTSTANDING Beet Puller

SUCCESSFUL sugar beet growers know that the profits from the crop depend largely on the method of harvesting. The important thing is to loosen all of the beets, with damage to as few roots as possible.

The John Deere lifting blades, are designed to get all of the beets, large and small, with the least amount of damage. The blades work along the row, breaking the soil and lifting the beets several inches, leaving the beets upright in the most convenient position for handling. The beets are not exposed to sun and frost.

The No. 23 will handle beets in rows from 18 inches to 28 inches apart. It is regularly furnish with 14-inch rolling coulters

7 Points of Superiority

Advice To The Road-Worn

E. V. PRUYN, Auto Repairing
Nyssa, Oregon
Gentlemen:

What's that disease them cows has been getting around here? You know I wish somebody would send the state veterinarian out to test me for it. I think I've got it.

I had the most terrible feeling this morning. I have been back-firing something awful the last few weeks. My poor old exhaust pipe is just naturally giving me no end of agony.

Believe me, I want you to do something about this before it's too late. I certainly don't want to go to no butcher shop like no sick cow!

Yours truly,
Poor Little Alice Ring Gear.

Dear Poor Little Alice:
Sounds bad, all right, but don't worry a bit. We may not know much about cows here, but listen to this: if an automobile gets a cow disease, no matter what it is, we can cure it.

Sincerely yours,
E. V. PRUYN, Auto Repairing
