

Ye Snooper's Column

Things About Nyssa's Shops

On Saturday we didst hie us to the Sales Yard and there didst see much to cause us mirth.

And did wonder why a handsome blonde man, who we didst recognize as our good friend that runs right well a large company's affairs here in our Nyssa town, might be doing with a vibrator. That kind that several years ago twas claimed was a sure panacea for all wrinkles and double chins et cetera that appeared upon fate and fortyish ladies faces. For to us the skin upon his cheeks didst seem as smooth and fresh as a new blown rose.

What with the week end deluge our thoughts didst turn to some thing in small and serviceable hats and on Monday didst duck into Earnest Wilson's bazaar to see what wares he might be offering in this line and there upon the table didst spy those diminutive beanies so popular with the college lassies. Cute tricks they are of velvet and felt, jaunty and cut to fit any head.

We would not have thee believe that because the Baldrige Implement doest call its self such a big name that it carries a stock limited to only this. For the truth about it be far different. In that trading center they do carry all things to meet thy cookery and hardware needs and many more. Thou wilt have to see for thyself to know all.

Now ye Snooper knows naught of beet trucks nor beet diggers nor even about beets. But we do know the over at the Rose Brothers in Parma one may get anything that one may need to help them in the harvest of this Oregon White Gold.

With the long evening's ahead one looks forward to getting in the much delayed reading and doest cast disgusted looks upon that old fashioned lamp which last winter did almost blind one with pale and misdirected beams. Bernard Frost at the Idaho Power and Electric did show us a new supply of A.E.S. lamps designed to shed light as she should be shed and we have resolved to own one, and that right soon.

Are thy hands a chap with the nippy winds and the keeping of thy fires burning and the skin upon thy body itch as thou already hadst donned the red flannels. At the Nyssa Pharmacy they do carry a soap made special just for this and it do work well. Ask for a bar of McCoy's soap and after that there will be none other that will please thee.

Many times ye Snooper has warned ye, as also have our neighbors Art Norcott who doest own that bright yellow services station at Second and Main as well as jolly Bert Lienkamper and his crew across the street from Art's, about the things that a sudden freeze will do to even the best of radiators. So if thou lack diligence and doest neglect to fill these babies with an anti freeze which they do sell and they do freeze tight upon thee some night when thou wilt be most needing thy motor vehicle blame us not. We have warned thee.

And speaking of Old Man Winter and his habits of sneaking in the night Tom Nordale is well supplied with all manner of stoves and at many prices so that there thou are sure to find one that will warm thy household through out the winter and still not leave thy pocket with an irreparable gap.

As we have mentioned before Omer Adkinson at the Owyhee Drug Company's store on Main near Third is our very good friend and doest let us brouse about his stock unmolested. The other night however he didst take time off and demonstrate to us a fine line of cameras and photo supplies that will enable even the dumbest among us to take good pictures. What could be nicer for a Christmas gift than one of these.

Speaking of Christmas it will soon be with us and then every one's mind will be upon their needs. Be ye wise and shop early and then thou cans't keep thy sweet disposition and even temper by keeping out of the Christmas rush, when all thy friends be agog picking over picked over stock.

But before Christmas comes there will be the fatted turkey to prepare for the family that it may give proper thanks for the years harvest and blessings on that day which our forefathers did set aside so to do. There will be many things to purchase for thy table that only on feast days doest thou allow thy family, but be not afraid. The Cash Grocery's shelves are always filled with seasonings and spices of every kind and other things to make thy table's burden complete on Thanksgiving day and every other day.

Art thou tired of thine old abode and find nothing of merit therein and has bulded in thy mind's eye a snug retreat wherein are all the latest knobs and gadgets to keep thy soul at peace. Visit The Nyssa Realty or Frank Morgan and bargain with them to sell this vertible shack for thee. For to some one else it will mean Home. Then with thy monies therefrom gained build thee anew habitation to please thee.

And when thou doest build be sure to consult with that man Jackson who does have all that is new in the building line and can help thee to stretch those dollars to the breaking point.

What is home without the warmth of cheery fires on cold days. See Al Thompson he does have coal and wood in which there is great warmth and small waste.

Didst thy husband a hunting go these last days and return to thee again with sodden shoes and a wet feet. Send those leaking boots to the Nyssa Shoe shop. They will become as new again.

Has thine husband grown weary of the same old meats from day to day and thou art weary too from much trying to please him. Enter ye into the doors of Barney Wilson's food emporium and there ye will find sauces and savors and different so that the old stew will become Ragout de Hungarie, Suki Yaki, Pugs de los Chimmoros, or what have you.

Do the autumn winds whistle through the cracks in thy walls with great vim and vigor and send a chill to the marrow of thy bones? Dwight Smith at the Boise Payette can show thee many things new in building materials that will foil even the most vehement of gales.

Shop in Nyssa with Journal advertisers and thou wilt not waste thy gas going farther.
