

CAMERAGRAPHS

ONETIME QUEEN: The Leviathan, resting for the last few years in dock at Hoboken, N. J., is to be scrapped. Her grandeur of a bygone day has rusted and rotted away, leaving nothing but a memory of this valiant Queen of the Seas.

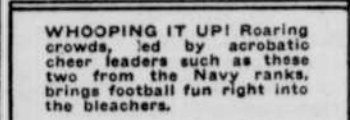

AN OLD TIMER with a new timer, Jack Cooper, Kansas City granddad of spectacular speedboat racing fame, inspecting one of his newest acquisitions, won for making the fastest heat in the American Speedboat Championships at the President's Cup Regatta in Washington, D. C. Cooper, whose "Tops II," 225 cubic inch hydroplane added color to the Eastern racing season and carried away from the President's Cup Regatta the John Charles Thomas, Gruen and Hearst trophies.

KATE SMITH, the "Songbird of the South," gives pointers on microphone technique to Henry Youngman, violin playing comedian of her new Hour heard Thursday nights over the WABC-Columbia Network.

CINEMA'S ROUGH-AND-TUMBLE comedienne, Patty Kelly, is adding recruits to her army of fans through her work as Phil Baker's feminine heckler in his Sunday night radio series over the WABC-Columbia network from Hollywood.

WHOOPING IT UP! Roaring crowds, led by acrobatic cheer leaders such as these two from the Navy ranks, brings football fun right into the bleachers.

BLASTING a trench in the bed of the Susquehanna River for a pipe line to carry petroleum products for The Atlantic Refining Company. Completion of the extension of the system now under construction will make it possible to pipe products from the Philadelphia refinery to Buffalo and Rochester, New York.

Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. Mattie Thomason, Mrs. F. G. Holmes and Mrs. F. C. Fry.
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Patterson were Sunday afternoon callers at the Torvald Olson home.

Mrs. J. H. Ulrey was hostess Thursday to the Willing Workers club at an all day meeting. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. All but two members were present. The guests served for the hostess served during the day.

Miss Goldie Miller and Mrs. Phyllis Hopkins attended Teachers Institute last Thursday and Friday at La Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holmes and children left Sunday evening for Tahoe, Idaho to spend a few days visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Jackie and Billie visited Wednesday with Mrs. F. G. Holmes.

KINGMAN KOLONY

By MRS. C. E. ELLIOTT

Mrs. Osborn had the misfortune to sprain her ankle quite badly when she stepped on a loose board which turned, causing the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thrasher are enjoying a visit from their two daughters and families who are Mrs. Ira Cole and three children from Brigham, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. Buren and son LeRoy from Stanislaus, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heeb, who came from Newell, South Dakota, have rented farm land from R. R. Overstreet. They have moved into the house which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Overstreet, who have moved to the M. L. Judd home to await the completion of their new old residence of the Overstreets, house, which is being built west of Those who attended the meeting of the County Council of Parents and Teachers in Ontario Saturday are Mrs. M. L. Judd, Mrs. Charles Newbill, Mrs. Mary Nichols, Mrs. Lilly Bach and Mrs. C. E. Elliott.

The school house piano received a very much needed tuning this week. Mr. F. A. Everett of Ontario did the work.

The regular meeting of the grange was held Monday evening at the school house. Four new members were given the obligation. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dutton and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denny.

Under the business meeting it was reported by the coal committee that one car load of coal had been ordered and it is expected that another car shall be ordered very soon.

Mrs. Lilly Bach received word from her son Kenneth Bach that he has successfully passed his aviation tests in Oakland, California and has been transferred to Florida for more training. He was to arrive in Florida Saturday.

Polly Anna club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Wilson Wednesday with seventeen members present. It was the beginning of a new year and officers were elected with Mrs. Charles Wilson, president, Mrs. Cora Martin, secretary. The next regular meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. J. G. Lane November 3rd.

Dick Ashcraft underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils Thursday. The operation was performed by Dr. Sarazin of Nyssa.

Mrs. W. L. Schaffer is planning to leave for Pocatello the latter part of this week, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. P. C. Call.

Conrad Martin has completed the conservation work which he has been doing the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ashcraft were Nampa visitors Saturday.

A Halloween program is being prepared by the teachers to be given at the Halloween party given by the PTA at the Kingman School house Friday October 29th. Everyone is invited to attend.

Little Betty Newbill spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison of Nyssa.

ADRIAN NEWS

ELLEN MCCONNELL

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson and daughter Betty of Nampa visited in the W. E. Ashcraft home Sunday.

The Rohland home was the scene of a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Newton last Thursday night. Those that attended were Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Muntjewerff and baby daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Newton and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton are leaving for their new home in Walla Walla Sunday.

Frank Van Petten of Ontario was also a guest of Rohlans on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Holly were shoppers in Caldwell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rchland and sons were in Boise Sunday.

Walter MacPortland left Wednesday for the teacher institute in La Grande returning home Sunday.

C. E. McConnell returned home Friday from a very successful deer hunt with Fred Snively. Mr. McConnell succeeded in bagging a four pointer.

Raymond Holly was a visitor at his parents home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marker and daughter Dolores and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Campbell of Boise were visitors Sunday in the C. E. McConnell home.

A farewell party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Newton last Monday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ziesgers. A large crowd attended. They will be greatly missed by their many friends.

ARCADIA NEWS

John Zittercob and Otis Bullard returned on Saturday from their hunt with a three pointer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Long of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Shirks of Pocatello called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas Bullard Sunday.

Kenneth Vanderpool trucked a load of produce to Burns for Lloyd Orris on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orris on Sunday.

Are Your Heels

RUN-DOWN?

If they are, you should certainly have them repaired at once because it's those little things that are so important.

LADIES

Rubber Heels 35c
Top Lifts 25c

NYSSA SHOE SHOP

Mrs. E. Livingston is working at the Otis Bullard home this week.
The Sew and So club will meet with Mrs. John Hickey on November 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Splawn, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullard and Mrs. E. Livingston and Louise Orris drove to the Owyhee dam on Sunday.

Joe Campbell of Boise was a visitor at the Kruklik home on Saturday.

John Stringer has purchased the Butler sheep sheds.

Clifford Fox is cutting some uet-tue now.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullard entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Colloy and son and Mrs. Ethel Mull at dinner.

THE CHATTER BOX CLUB

The Chatter Box club met at the Herland Maw home October 20 and the afternoon was spent visiting.

Mrs. Bennett reports the quilt finished all but the binding and the members will soon start selling numbers on it.

Mrs. Alva Goodell gave a guessing game with Mrs. E. Neilson winning first prize and Mrs. Brokousky consolation prize.

New members of the club are Mesdames Tom Johnson, Jesse Ford, Glenn Sutor and A. Adams.

The following answered roll call with Christmas candy recipes Mesdames Loyd Adams, John Bartholoma, C. H. Bennett, J. Brokousky, Orren Choat, Chas. Gardner, A. A. Jamieson, Virgil McGee, E. Neilson, E. L. Jamison, James Stephens, C. E. Wyckoff, E. Henderson, T. Johnson, Glenn Sutor, Jesse Ford, A. Adams, Turhune Strawn and A. P. Goodell.

The hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. Henderson November 3, with Mrs. C. C. Wyckoff program leader.

Let a Classified ad sell it.

Stomach Gas

One dose of ADLERIKA quickly relieves gas bloating, cleans out BOTH upper and lower bowels, allows you to eat and sleep good. Quick, thorough action, yet entirely gentle and safe.

ADLERIKA

NYSSA PHARMACY

Specials for Saturday DOUGHNUTS For Halowe'en

WE HAVE MANY DELICIOUS VARIETIES—

Cake Doughnuts

Glazed Doughnuts

Chocolate Coated Doughnuts

Whole Wheat Doughnuts

Also Pumpkins and Mince Pies

McClure Bros. Bakery

PHONE 20

SUNSET VALLEY

MRS. L. E. NEWGEN

The Civic and Social club meeting was postponed last week due to the illness of the hostess, Mrs. R. W. Bolitho, who suffered a very severe attack of flu. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Black on Thursday November 4.

There are two new barns going up this week. Owners are Lester Kendall and Shorty Black.

Mr. Heintz is cutting corn this week on the Givens ranch.

Doris and Phillip Ransome spent Saturday at the Newgen home while Mr. and Mrs. Ransom went to Parma.

Callers at the Chas. Ditty home Sunday afternoon were Mrs. E. H. Barker of Owyhee and Mrs. H. W. Evans and Mrs. D. D. Williams of Ontario. Mary and Tressie Ditty were also home Sunday from Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pettie and Carl were dinner guests at R. W. Bolitho home Friday evening.

Mrs. O. L. Brown and Mrs. Herr of La Grande spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ditty. Mrs. Brown is Mrs. Ditty's mother.

Mrs. John Vanderpool called on Mrs. Terra Friday afternoon.

L. B. Landreth completed a well at Wolf's and moved to the Robb ranch last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glenn of Owyhee Dam were business visitors in Sunset Valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Terra and family called on the Otto Wolf family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Anderson and son Earl of Nyssa were visitors at the Terra home Sunday morning.

Mr. A. R. Roberts and son Troy went to the hills for poles Friday.

George Wilson returned from Homedale last week where he has been working in the apples.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Newgen and family were Vale visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moffat spent last week end at the home of their daughter Mrs. Bolitho.

Rev. Lester Carlson and family of La Grande were overnight guests at the Chas. Ditty home last Thursday.

Mrs. Rhoda Landreth called on Mrs. Newgen Friday.

A. R. Roberts has rented the Givens ranch for the coming year. Correction of last weeks report. The meeting for the 4-H club and Boy Scouts will be held Saturday 30th (not 20th) at Newgen home. Conducted by Mr. Hauser and Mrs. Chas. Schweizer.

Jack and Stanley Reffett and of Owyhee were guests at the home of Mrs. Goe's sister, Mrs. Lester Kendall.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goe and family James Chadd spent Sunday riding in the hills.

OREGON TRAIL

MRS. FRANK BYERS

A very nice program was presented Sunday morning following Sunday school by the patrons of Oregon Trail Sunday school in observance of Rally Day. Sixty-one people being present to enjoy the program which was as follows: rally day song Junior girls; recitation, "Why We Station Here For a Purpose," Ione Rally, Mary Lou Thomason; recitation, "Your Best," Junior Holmes. The pledge by the Sunday School. Closing by Mrs. Fry followed by the doxology.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tol, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tol, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sumpter and children of Fruitland, Ida., were Sunday dinner guests at the R. W. Holmes home.

Elmer Olson who has been employed at Norwood, Idaho all summer returned home the last of the week.

Mrs. Grover Cooper and Mrs. F. B. Rookstool attended the home demonstration meeting at Mrs. Andrew Boersma's Friday.

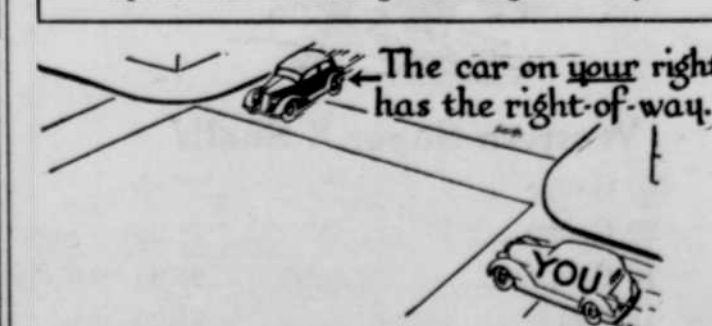

Among those attending County Council PTA meeting in Ontario Saturday from this community were

Sportsmanlike Driving—Give the Right-of-Way

When there is a serious accident with injuries and property damage, it really doesn't matter who had the right-of-way. It becomes merely a legal technicality. The Sportsmanlike Driver always grants the right-of-way.

Sportsmanlike Driving—The Right-of-Way

With 25,000,000 vehicles moving on the streets and highways, the question of right-of-way is of the utmost importance to safety. Study the above illustration. When two cars arrive at an intersection at the same time, the car on the right has the right-of-way. Sportsmanlike Drivers are never too insistent about the right-of-way.

Office Stationery PRINTING

That Will Give Distinction To Your Business

Letterheads - Envelopes

Have Your Checks Printed With Your Firm Name Printed and Numbered 1,000 for $4.65

Public Sale!

All The Public Comes

New Starting Time -- 1 p. m. Sharp
Bring Your Stuff

COWS —the pick of the market

PIGS —a big range of choice

Clothing and Household Goods

DON'T FORGET THE CASH AND MERCHANDISE AWARDS!

Nyssa Sale Yard

Col. Bert Anderson, Auctioneer

Fox & Son, Managers