Play the game and do your part. If you do not like some certain school activity, that is no reason why you should shun it or spread your dislike among the students. Anything done by the school should be upheld by the entire student body. You should be sport enough to do your part and keep the spirit high. You will accomplish nothing by grumbling except making life disagreeable for yourself as well as others. Keep your head up and a smile on your face. It will help to keep everyone happy and carefree and your work will go much more smoothly.

The Girls' League worked hard Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week making basketball programs containing schedule of games, players, yells, and songs which they sold at the game Friday for ten cents each.

The proceeds of the sale of programs and popcorn is to be used toward the purchase of dishes and other equipment for a school kitchen. The amount taken in for both popcorn and schedules was six dollars and sixteen cents. The girls will continue in selling candy and popcorn throughout the basketball season.

We, the detectives of the Sneak and Snoop detective agency, witnessed a very lively basketball game between Nyssa and Crane last Friday. It seems that one of our basketball players has a conflict between basketball and romance. His eyes continued to wander to the stands to see by whom "she" was sitting.

"cherchez la Femme"
Signed—Sneak and Snoop.

SMALLPOX CLINIC—

A smallpox clinic was held in the high school building Thursday morning, December 2. Dr. Sarazin and his associate Dr. van der Vliet and Mrs. Parris, the county health nurse, held the clinic and were assisted by Mrs. Dick Tensen, Mrs. Wm. Schreman and Mrs. Douglas McDonald. About 250 students were vaccinated from both high and grade schools.

The Nyssa student body was entertained Monday by a very fascinating travelogue on "Venezuela", which was presented by the globe trotter, Leon Albert. He included many interesting things in his program, many unusual laws and customs and other facts about this progressive South American country. It was both humorous and educational, and there was a great deal of benefit to be derived from it. The program was sponsored by the Northwest Assemblies National Program Service and the Nyssa Girls' League.

SOCIAL—

Due to the small turnout and the inaccessibility of music, the dance scheduled for Saturday night, December 4, was postponed.

—N. H. S.—

Mrs. Walter Rosebraugh was substituting for Mr. Frank Parr, who was ill Monday.

—N. H. S.—

It was a poor, cold, little, tan, and white dog, that came creeping into Mrs. Young's English room at the close of the school day. He was shivering and crying as if his heart would break.

After basketball practice, two boys came into look at the poor little dog to find him curled up in one corner fast asleep. He looked so helpless one of the boys, Milton Schnitter, took the puppy home with him. After a good supper, the puppy was extremely happy and settled down to his new surroundings.

Several boys getting a lecture on typing at noon by a senior girl.

Mrs. Young becoming sentimental over a poor little puppy that was lost.

—N. H. S.—

Mr. Rosebraugh in art class) Who made it?

Irene Poage—Made what?
Mr. R.—Oh, there will be time enough to find out what it is after we find out who made it.

—N. H. S.—

Mr. Parr—The coordination was perfect.

Fred Boness—Yeh and that's a hard instrument to play too.

—N. H. S.—

Edna Warren—Why don't you act more like Jack McKee?

Wilbur Smith—Oh who brought him up.

Edna—His mother.

—N. H. S.—

Verna M.—Now take Pete Cloninger's grammar, he's perfect.

Leslie C.—I'd like to.

—N. H. S.—

Loretta Buell—What would you do if I started to cry?

Berniece Roy—Hang up a sign "wet paint."

SCHOOL JANITORS' INSTITUTE

Mr. Walter E. Morse, assistant supervisor of Trade and Industrial Education of the state department of vocational education, was in Ontario Wednesday arranging for a training school for school janitors.

This school is one of a series of sixteen being conducted throughout the state, and will be held in Ontario, December 17 and 18, at the E. B. Conklin Grade school building. It will convene at 10:00 a. m. and will continue until approximately 3:30 p. m.

This course, which is presented by the State Board of Vocational Education, has the backing of state and local educational authorities. It is open to any school janitor in the area. Board members, superintendents, and principals are also welcome.

It is the hope of the sponsors to raise the efficiency of the school janitor service, and at the same time, make a saving for the taxpayers through the proper use of materials.

The aim of the classes is to provide a method of giving the janitor information useful in reducing the amount of effort involved in doing the best possible work. The janitor can secure ideas that will reduce his work and also that will reduce the cost of materials and supplies, and at the same time can improve the standard of the work rendered.

The service of providing the classes is being rendered without cost to community. There are no charges made to those who attend.

A certificate of merit will be issued by the State Board for Vocational Education to those who complete all of the work given in the meetings.

The instructor, Mr. L. O. Thompson, has acquired over twenty-five years of experience in the janitor field. He has served as janitor, superintendent of a building and janitor instructor. He knows the job thoroughly, is a very pleasant individual and keeps the class discussion lively. Subjects to be taken up include: testing soap, how much soap to use in cleaning, problems in cleaning and finishing fir, oak, maple, linoleum, and cement floors. Use of floor seals, waxes and equipment. Short-cut methods, cleaning of lavatory porcelain, use of sweeping oil, how to make a sweeping compound. How to make a chemically treated dust cloth, window cleaning, cleaning blackboards, keeping the furnace room, eliminating fire hazards, inspection and servicing fire equipment.

All school janitors in the area are invited to attend.

NYSSA-VALE SECOND TEAM GAME—

The second team game played Friday on the Nyssa gym floor between the Nyssa Bulldogs and the Vale Wildcats ended in the drastic defeat of the Nyssa boys to the tune of 27 to 9. The Nyssa team was all new material and lacked experience.

In the return game at Vale on Saturday night, the Nyssa boys proved their worth by tying the Vale team, 19 to 19. In the three minute overtime, each team fouled receiving one free throw; and the Vale team converted but Nyssa failed, making the score 20 to 19 for Vale.

Second team line-up for Nyssa Friday: forwards, Pompe, Points; center, Watson; guards, Boren, Holmes, Short.

NYSSA-CRANE BASKET BALL GAME—

The Nyssa Bulldogs met a 1-point defeat at the hands of Crane basketball team Friday night on the home floor by a score of 28 to 27.

The game was a fight from start to finish with the teams alternating in the lead. Huston Wilson and Jim Savage tied for high point man with nine points each. This is the Bulldogs' first game and only two men, Stanley Ray and Ray Graham were retained from last year's team, Stan Ray being unable to play because of an injured leg.

The Nyssa line-up is as follows: forwards: J. Savage, E. Roy, C. Choat, centers, R. Graham, G. Eichner; uards, C. Patterson, H. Wilson, T. Enlesby; G. Gaston.
