followed by a 10 year custom by leaving free tickets for every child in the county, for a show that will start at 10 a. m. on Christmas morning.

The program has been especially prepared and will include a western feature "Two Gun Law" and three cartoons. The western feature will star a favorite of all the children, Charles Starrett. The management is quite anxious to show their appreciation of the patronage of the youngsters and for the past ten years have followed this custom.

All that the youngsters will have to do is to arrive at the theatre and they will be welcomed by those in charge. There is absolutely no charge for admittance for youngsters.
