Things About Nyssa's Shops

Some time ago we did hear from friends who do serve in a large city medical center that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor have made reservations in a Baltimore hospital where sometime in the near future will be born to them a child. But because there is only sympathy and a fervent wish in our heart that these two people may be allowed to work out their destiny in peace and quiet and with out further clutter and comment from the masses of all nations who cannot possibly know all that led to King Edwards abdication and the persecution which has followed him and his American born wife since, we did not speak to thee of it ere this. For it be news indeed. While our words are not even a faint riddle on the worlds editorial tide still one drop of water may be carried far, therefore we held our peace the while.

However now one hears it announced over the radio and from papers everywhere even from far flung islands, so now we do feel free to speak.

Because the Duchess be an American born woman, whom the powers behind the throne in England refused to a place among them on the same level as that would have been accorded to a Britisher, and as we do feel that all women are indeed "sisters under their skins", we are hoping above all else right now that her babe be a man child. Just to prove to that London smugness that their king could have done much worse than to take an American woman to wife. Our standards of morals and ethical ideals may deviate from the antiquated grooves found in older lands, because they were shaped by a peoples building a new nation in a wilderness where inconsequential held no place. This however in no way impairs the basic finess of character nor lessens the depths of love a woman holds for her true mate. Neither does it dim her sense of duty.

The mystery of birth is ever awe inspiring and no greater ecstasy can any woman know, than to hold her first born in her arms and to see its father, her lover and husband by their side, his eyes aflame with love and adoration. It is then that love becomes pure and undefiled.

A bit later as ye all do know this same male will strut like a peacock and puff about as a pouter pigeon as if the whole affair were of his making, but the woman has seen that other light first and does not mind nor will she soon forget.

So it is that we are wishing that these two, the Duke of Windsor and his American born Duchess, may be greatly blessed and that their supreme joy may not be marred by the spying eyes of a too inquisitive world. And we feel proud that they have looked to America to grant them a haven at this time and pray that no class hatred nor politically instigated hindrances may mar their happiness and add further to the unwarranted indignities which were heaped upon them at the time of their contemplated visit here this last autumn.

Lets be American, and play fair. Treat them at this time as we would be treated ourselves.

Hasn't these new Kadette radios which Omer Adkinson at the Owyhee Drug Company be selling at such a low cost? At such a price one need be without constant contact with the outside world activities and if thou hast a home that doest need two here be a dandy one to play second fiddle.

But there be no second fiddle stuff to the pictures that one sees at the Nyssa theatre, for there they show only the best and the latest with a variety of program that will please all ages and tastes.

Hasn't treated thy self to a spring salad yet? Thou wilt not need wait until spring is here to do so, for at Barney Wilson's grocery mart there are on his fresh vegetable counter now every thing needed to go into one of these tasty and healthful concoctions.

And with this salad serve a thick juicy steak which thou canst ever purchase at the Nyssa Packing company. Or perhaps thy taste will run to other viands. Be not concerned. The Nyssa Packing still can meet thy tastes in meat.

We wouldst not have thee forget thine insurance and to remind thee a lapsed policy will not fill thy need when the accident, fire or death may come. For thine own and thy families protection do not procrastinate here and didst know that thou mayest insure against thy health as well. Not gambling with thy death, but insuring thy self that in time of illness there will be enough monies to pay the bills and re-emburse thee for thy time away from the daily chore. Now Frank Morgan at his insurance office or Don or Jessie Graham at their Nys-sa realty center can put you on the right road in any and all insurance needs.

Now we do hear that an occasional baby lamb be putting in its appearance and didst see with our own eyes a calf fresh born this past week so do feel sure that the barnyard fowl matron will not be long out done. Indeed their minds already may be upon a new nest and a fine brood of downy chicks chirping at her heels. If thou wantest bigger and better chicks, ones that will develop into outstanding layers or put on the layers of fat so that they will bring a fat price on the hoof, talk to Al or Herschel Thompson at their feed and fuel store and learn about chick food from them.

Is thine heart set on a fence this year? Something new and nobby in the way of boundary line partitions, then talk it over with Mr. Jackson at the Jackson lumber yard and see some of the new things that he can show and let him help thee with thine other building problems. And girls, ye who are still out of the cunibul state there be a good looking bachelor or two thereabouts. One a cheery blond lad of pleasant voice and happy mein wouldst go beautifully with some brunett's loveliness.

Didst all last summer long for a shower where at any and all moments thou mightst dunk thyself without too much preparation? Well this summer indulge thy whim and let that fellow Starks show thee just how easily and cheaply it may be done.

Didst see that Allys Chalmers tractor parked out in front of the Texaco Station? If not be sure to give it the once over and let Taylor Gudmundsen show thee worse half just how beautifully it do work for many things.

Hasn't looked over thy garden tools and found some of them wanting and others in the need of repair. Trot thee to the Baldrige Implement company and there thou wilt find them all and many more to ease thy back muscles and relieve the elbow grease when garden planting time is here again.

And at the Olsen Second Hand bazaar are many things both great and small and new and used which will lighten thy spring labors at a pleasing cost always.

When thou art longing for something new and different to do forget not that in Ontario art those two play houses The Roxie and the Pix where there is ever the best of modern entertainment with frequent changes and always their program be printed in these pages so that thou mayest know what it is that thou wilt see before thou start.

We would not have the ignorant. At the Nyssa Garage where Harold Hoxie doest be called "Boss", will do a fine repair job on thine carryalls innards, so that she who has puffed and gurgled till thou were to the point of lunacy will come forth as quietly as the depression or recession or what ever it was that came out of the financial chaos to again set the countrys economic teeth a chattering.

And Ed. Prunty at his mercantile domicile does wield a mean welding torch which will mend many a thing that now seems past resurrection.

Every driver doest know that a brilliant orange service station doest dispense Shell gas and every one in town doest know and strangers soon learn that Art Norcott at his orange station at Second and Main is Chief Shell-gas-man here in Nyssa.

And what about the batteries that lose their sweetness on the desert air, unseen and unheard? They are the heart of thine Elizabeth and without them she no will go, crank and sweat how thee may. Take a look see how they are getting along or thou mayest rue the day that thou didst not. And let the smiling chaps who serve with Bert Lienkaemper at the Powell Service station check on them.

The threat of a long cold winter be almost behind us and ere long we will put out the fires and our thoughts will turn to ice and how to keep a house cool on a long hot day. At the Boise Payette Lumber company store they have many things that may help thee to insulate against the summers sun. You may be able to add them to your old abode and above all do not build anew until thou hast learned about these new insulating devices.

When day is done and thine spouses labors art ended, his thought are on filling up the hole in the pit of his stomach and that right soon, but thou being the dutiful wife and good housekeeper beatest him to the punch for before he alights he can sniff the tantalizing aroma of victuals cooking. And it is here that the Cash Grocery will ever stand thee in good stead with their ever fresh stock of grocery staples and canned things in from the seven seas.

Shop in Nyssa with Journal advertisers and thou wilt not waste thine time and thine gas going farther.
