

Society

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Frank Hall was hostess to the Thursday bridge club, and Mrs. Dean Smith, Mrs. Taylor Gudmundsen, Mrs. Bernard Frost and Mrs. Sidney Burbridge were invited guests. High score was won by Mrs. Dewey Ray and second fell to Mrs. Gudmundsen.

FRIDAY DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hunt were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall.

Knot Hole News

Sim-Harry tells me he's had insomnia ever since he married. Sam—I'm not surprised. If I had a wife like his, I couldn't sleep either.

A hard luck story concerns the absent-minded actor who was thrown in jail for jumping out of a hotel window with his suitcase in hand. They just wouldn't believe he was trying to commit suicide.

Question—My sweetie has a birthday next month. He is very fond of flowers. Can you suggest something I could give him for a gift?
Answer—Yes, send him a bottle of "Four Roses."

When a girl marries an old codger twice as old as she is, she might as well look forward to several evenings of being bored to death.

How in the world did Cowgal Condie ever get to marry that bashful millionaire?

Gosh, haven't you heard, she spurned him on.

It's hard for a woman to keep her youth when her husband doesn't give her money to spend on him.

What were you doing on that golf course yesterday throwing your golf ball down the fairway?

Oh, I was too drunk to drive.

Bogus Money Maker—If this suit fails to give satisfaction, do I get my money back?

Suit Maker—I suppose so. And if this money fails to give satisfaction, can I have my suit back?

Jackson Lumber Company

Nyssa, Oregon

Is Your Bathroom UP TO DATE?

Take a peek at it right now, and then remember—you can make it so at little cost. Just call the—

Nyssa Plumbing & Heating Co.
Phone 66 Box 345
NYSSA, OREGON

Announcement!

I am pleased to announce that

Charles W. Swan

Of Newberg, Oregon has joined my office and will engage with me in the practice of law in Malheur County under the firm name of

LYTLE AND SWAN

with offices in the Lytle Bldg. at Vale.

Respectfully,
ROBT. D. LYTLE

IRONSIDE NEWS

By MRS. E. J. BEAM

Eldorado grange held its regular meeting on Friday. After the business session the lecturer, Mrs. Ralph Boor entertained with a short but good program. A nice lunch was served by Mesdames Ralph Boor and Dave Buchanan.

Chuck Rawlinson left Thursday for Portland where he will haul back some machinery for the Fish saw mill. While he is away his wife is staying with her mother Mrs. Manual Smith of Ontario.

Vernon Lawrence who had his leg broken by a horse falling with him several weeks ago is now getting around on crutches and doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nichols motored to Ontario last Tuesday.

John Moltan and David Lawrence moved a bunch of the Moltan cattle to Jamieson last Sunday and Monday.

Harold Hanna and a friend from Ontario and two McTavish girls of Vale were in Ironside Sunday visiting. They brought Coy Wise home from Ontario.

Frances Cammann made a trip to Harper last Monday by truck for machinery for the Fred Fish saw mill.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lofton and grandson Richard Lofton were Ontario business visitors last Wednesday.

The Sylvester Rose family were visitors at the home of Mrs. Rose's sister Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tureman at Unity last Sunday.

The Ralph Beam family of Unity were Wednesday night guests at the parental E. J. Beam home. Vivian Van Cleave and children returned home with them for a week end visit.

About 40 persons gathered at the Sylvester Rose home on last Tuesday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Rose. Pinocle was the diversion, with six tables in play. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all, and a delicious pot luck lunch was served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Cammann were visitors to Jamieson on last Sunday to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Cammann at the John Norwood home.

Arthur Nichols purchased a team of work horses while in Ontario last week at the sale.

Ralph Beam of Unity went to the Malheur river last Thursday returning Friday looking after cattle for the Rouse estate.

Arthur Van Buren and son Raleigh were Unity visitors last Tuesday.

SUNSET VALLEY

MRS. L. E. NEWGEN

The Civic and Social club met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Ditty with ten ladies answering roll call. Study on the preparation of lawn seeding was lead by Mrs. Hatlie Raffington, followed by a lesson on planting of the lawn by Mrs. Sage. The next meeting will be the home of Miss Mildred Terra on Thursday January 10.

Paul Ransome and family returned home Sunday after spending the past two weeks in Nyssa where Mr. Ransome received treatment at the Dixon Nursing Home under the care of Dr. Sarazin. Mr. and Mrs. Wiken took care of their stock.

Phillip Ransom was a week end guest at the Reffett home.

Mr. L. B. Landreth who has been suffering from rheumatism for the past three weeks is reported to be very little better.

Miss Betty Reves barely escaped pneumonia last week. She was very sick for a few days but is better at this writing. Her sister, Annabelle, was also sick with flu last week.

Bobbie Rookstool has been out of school for awhile treating a case of chicken-pox.

Mabel Roberts was absent from school last week due to having flu.

Mrs. Lester Kendall and Mrs. J. A. Case motored to Nampa bringing home Misses Tressa and Mary Ditty who visited the parental home over the week end.

Cash Turner and family have moved to their homestead south of the Bolitho residence. The Turner family are from Kansas and have been living in Boise for a few months. They are keeping their stock at the Robb ranch until they have time to build corrals.

The Landreth boys were busy the past week repairing their car, which they happened to over-turn last week at the S-curve near the Ward ranch, when the steering gear locked. Luckily, no one was hurt.

James Chadd, Jack Reffett and Bob Newgen attended the basketball game at Nyssa Saturday night.

Helen Reffett, Lucille Chadd and Bonnie Newgen hiked to the top of Chalk Butte Sunday.

Miss Mildred Terra visited at the Klaus Stam home at Oregon Trail Monday.

The 4-H Handicraft club met Friday night, but owing to several of the boys being sick the meeting was cancelled. They will meet Friday night of this week.

The 4-H cooking club met at the Reffett home Saturday afternoon. There were six girls present. A lesson on the making of toast was given by Lucille Chadd and Bonnie Newgen. Their next meeting will be at the Chadd home.

A. R. Roberts and sons, Asa and Troy are working on the hay chopper for Vern Wilson.

The Lewis well drill moved to the Vern Wilson ranch Saturday.

The John Case residence is nearing completion and they expect to move into it within the next few days.

BIG BEND NEWS

By MRS. E. H. BRUMBACH

Wade PTA will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Howard Hatch in Adrian. Mrs. Art Sparks will be assistant hostess.

The Curry family who lived on the Peck ranch are moving near Malheur Butte.

The Walter Bishop family moved Friday on the ranch recently vacated by the Muntjewerff family.

E. H. Brumbach transacted business in Nyssa Tuesday.

Messrs. Case Muntjewerff and Tom Campbell were Caldwell business visitors last Tuesday.

The H. R. Hatch home is being improved by a new coat of paint.

Oral Smith of Ontario was a Bend business visitor Friday.

A large number of friends of the Winters family attended the funeral of Mrs. C. E. Winters last Friday at the Presbyterian church in Roswell.

Mrs. Winters lived in the Bend a number of years and will be greatly missed by her many friends who extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lee and Miss Ingrid Aho were Payette visitors Friday.

Mrs. M. E. Rogers spent last Tuesday in Boise.

Mrs. Wm. Sweet was on the sick list last week and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Sweet went to Caldwell where Mrs. Sweet consulted a doctor.

Mrs. B. G. Roberts and Mrs. Wm. Gibson were shopping in Caldwell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester French and Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Earl Kahn were Boise visitors Saturday. Mr. Kahn remained for a visit with his uncle Perry Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Van de Water of Wilder were Sunday guests in the Haworth home.

Miss Betty Baldrige, who teaches in Fruitland high school spent the week end visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baldrige.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lee and Miss Ingrid Aho were guests of relatives in Caldwell Saturday.

Mrs. C. Muntjewerff was on the sick list the forepart of the week.

Friends in Bend are pleased to learn that Miss Wilma Colwell has recovered and returned home Monday from Portland Medical hospital where she was a patient for the past three weeks.

Thinking is Hard Work

Thinking is the hardest kind of work a mortal can do. And just because it is hardest, the higher rewards are reserved to it. Thinking calls for facts; facts are found by digging. He who has gathered this wealth is well equipped for life.

OREGON TRAIL

MRS. FRANK BYERS

Mrs. Archie Smith was hostess to the Willing Workers club Thursday with an all day session. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. The day was spent sewing. Members present were Mrs. Wm. Mettlen and Faye, Mrs. Ewen Chard and Jack, Mrs. Clyde Mitchell, Mrs. Ernest Smith and children, Mrs. Fred Boness, Mrs. J. H. Urey, Mrs. C. A. Shoop and Mrs. Wyatt Smith and Melvin and Walter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Holmes and Bob were in Payette and Ontario on business Tuesday.

Mary Lou Thomason was hostess at a party held Saturday afternoon for the Junior Girls class of Oregon Trail Sunday school. The afternoon was spent playing games. Guests included Mrs. Fry, the teacher; Inza Urey, Helen Shop, Mary Al-laga, Joan Maltberger, Jane Adams, Ruth Skates, Vesta Maltberger, Chickako Hara and the hostess. This is the first of a series of parties which will be given each month.

A lovely lunch was served at the close of the afternoon by hostess's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holmes were hosts at dinner Sunday honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Hemphill and Lorraine Sumpter of Fruitland, grandmother and niece of Mrs. Holmes. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Toll Sr., Mrs. Virgil Sumpter and baby all of Fruitland and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Franklin and family from Owyhee district.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberland and family have moved onto Mrs. Joe Stam, Sr., farm formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Voogs. The Voogs have moved to a house on the Sid Skinner farm.

Avils Urey who is employed in Nyssa visited at home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mettlen and Faye have moved from their home at Mitchell Butte to a house on the farm of their daughter Mrs. Ewen Chard. Mr. Mettlen has rented his farm this year.

The pinocle party sponsored by the Oregon Trail grange was well attended Friday evening. At the close of the card play high scores were held by Mrs. F. G. Holmes and John Stam. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Anderson and Van Maltberger. Lunch was served at the close of the evening. These parties are held each Friday evening and are proving very popular with the people. Plan to attend Friday evening at the Oregon Trail school house.

Peggy Chard is confined to bed with a heart and liver ailment.

Mrs. Virgil Sumpter and children of Payette are visiting with her sister Mrs. R. W. Holmes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Fuhrman and daughters of Kuna, visited at the Torwald Olson home Sunday.

Glen Urey has been sick with the flu this week.

LOWER BIG BEND

MISS FLORENCE RUSSELL

Louis King is visiting at the parental Joe King home this week.

Ruth Eastman was brought home from the Ontario hospital this week.

There was a large crowd attended the program at the Big Bend school house Saturday. The judges, Anna Sparks, Clyde Cartwright and Mrs. Abbi gave the men the decision of the best program.

Mrs. M. A. Bradney visited her niece Peggy Schweizer of the Owyhee Tuesday.

Horace Chaney shipped a car load of live stock to Portland Friday returning on Tuesday.

Many from this district attended the funeral of Mrs. Winters at Roswell.

Fifty-Fifty

It is difficult for some people to mind their own business. First, they haven't any mind and, secondly, they haven't any business.

KINGMAN KOLONY

By MRS. C. E. ELLIOTT

Visiting at the home of their mother Mrs. C. C. Cotton are: Mrs. George Moore of Kimberley, Idaho, and Albert Moore and family of Nampa.

The Fred Pitkin family are moving from Kingman to their new home on the Owyhee. This will take two pupils from school, Donald Plakin and Charles Miller.

Two new pupils have enrolled in school. They are Arlie and Charles West.

School children have been enjoying hot lunches the past two weeks. Miss Stella Danrusky prepares them.

Lucille Doty, pupil of the third grade is in a Caldwell sanitarium recovering from an appendicitis operation.

The community was greatly shocked by the death of Mrs. C. E. Winters last week.

Altho Mrs. Winters had been in poor health for some time she had been greatly improved of late, which made her death a shock to everyone.

Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church in Roswell with interment in the Roswell cemetery.

The regular meeting of the 4-H Leaders Council to be held in Annex Friday February 5 has been postponed and will be held there on Friday, February 12. This is an all day meeting, with lunch being served at noon.

Buena Vista News

This community was well represented at the school election in Nyssa Saturday where Mr. C. C.

Steam Cleaned $1.00

Get that winter mud and dirt off with our new steam pressure method.

Both Motor and Running gear
STEAMED CLEAN $1.50

POWELL SERVICE STATION

Main and 2nd Streets
Phone 1

For Strong, Healthy Chicks

use

Purina Startena

Standard Coal

Feed-Coal-Grain

AL THOMPSON & SON

Phone 26

NYSSA

SALE!

SATURDAY, FEB. 6, at 1 P. M.

Having bought the NYSSA SALES YARD, we will continue the Saturday Sales.

ON SALE EVERY SATURDAY

HORSES — CATTLE — HOGS — SHEEP — CHICKENS — FARM MACHINERY FURNITURE

Bring in everything you want turned into the Highest $$$ Obtainable

NYSSA SALES YARD

ANDREWS & BURK

Col. Andrews
Auctioneer

John M. Burk
Manager

VALENTINES

of
All Kinds

—at—

JOHNSON VARIETY