

Ye Snoopers' Column

Things About Nyssa's Shops

We did this past week receive two letters from our readers. One sweet as honey from a gentle lady whom we do live much. One who has lived and labored and loved and does know the Truth of many things. The other—was all gall and didst raise our ire to the boiling point—but when we didst stop to think twas written by one who evidently had not yet had enough years of life behind her to have gained an understanding of her fellow man nor to have obtained that poise of mind which years of living will bring. We forgot the wrath for we do know the rough road of that knowledge. But we didst also think it be man's nature to accept the compliment all ways as some thing well deserved and to resent the criticism as unwarranted evil.

This last week again we have watched the CCC troop trains rolling along and were grateful, all over again that they were troops of peace and of construction and not those of a generation ago which pulled so many boys to their eventual destruction. Even yet we can feel the congealing in the pit of our stomach as we watched those boys leave so silently for a place, they knew not where. But it was in those days that we did come to learn a great respect for the American youth and manhood. For his courage, his honor and his love of fair play. Eighteen months we did serve with them and spent long night alone with them in wards where a hundred or more, lay ill or dying. Seldom they complained, like a brother they would help one another and not once in those months didst one speak unkindly or discourteously to us. And today we sit in meeting with them and they still be the same.

So when we do read that the youth of today be on a fast downward path on the road to hell in a hand basket, so to speak, we believe it not for we do feel that if put to the test these boys and these girls be not unlike us who were born before them. They play dance, laugh and cry and learn to live, even as we.

Is their vocabulary stale and art looking for some new words and expressions? Then this you can get along with thy movie fare at the Nyssa theatre for this new angle of vocabulary increase was brought to our attention in a conversation when a young friends didst tell us of some of the clever things which she had heard there the past week and we didst realize more than ever the effect of the movies up on the youngsters. So if soon you do be hearing of pickled toothpicks thou wilt know the source. But be sides adding spice and novelty to the speech the pictures at this house of entertainment be ever of the best.

Then as we do tell thee each week that in our neighbor city of Ontario at the Roxie and the Pix there be ever also a fine show. And now after weeks of sticking fast in the mire a few bumps on a wind dried road should not mar an evenings jaunt there and back. And so that thy ride may not be needless they do each week print their attractions in this Journal.

Now this past week we didst chat with the men at the Boise Payette and didst learn for sure just how simple and fast it be to get that modeling loon that thou mayest have in thy mind. No red tape, no arguing and no waiting. Just answer a few simple question and sign a simple paper, then after a short hour or so on investigation and thou canst begin again. Then pay it back each month a bit at a time until ere thou are aware of it the whole thing is done with.

Hasn't seen that new electric stove on display at the Idaho Power company's store. All white it be with shining stainless metal, with all manner of cooking devices that do everything but thy culinary meditations for thee. It be the last thing in what's what for thy kitchen.

But what is a stove without food and that be where that merry crew in at Barney Wilson can help thee. For everything that be edible and good to eat canst be found there. Meats and vegetables and staples and condiments and fruits both canned and fresh. If company comes and thou art unprepared it need not worry thee if thou dost keep on hand some of those shelled nuts all done up in cellophane, a jar of salad dressing and some ripe bananas. Just slice the banana lengthwise, spread a generous serving of dressing on top and then scatter thickly with the nuts. With a few crisp crackers and a cup of tea thou wilt have a luncheon that be the pickled toothpicks in any mans language.

And no matter how fine thy stove and how excellent thy baking there be moments in every womans life when a bakery becomes a urgent necessity. But if one does go to the McClure Brothers here in Nyssa thou canst fool even the finicky guest so rich and perfectly made their things are.

We didst used to be of the class that thought that gas was gas and any old kind would give the same performance as the nationally known and advertised makes but we didst learn to our sorrow that this was not so. Blame not thine Elizabeth if she stutters and stails with thee on a cold day if thou has been feeding her and oiling her on little known brands. But if thou wilt see that cheery chap Art Norcott at his Second and Main Street service station or Bert and Charlie at the Powell service station you'll get the best that there is in this petrol stuff.

Now just back of the Powell service station is the stamping ground of Eddie Pruyn who will take the wheel and the whirl out of any heap old or new and all the kinks and whims that they may have developed with hard use or utter neglect so that thou mayest start out and be sure that thou wilt return when thou art of a mind to.

On Saturday we didst journey down beyond the tracks and there didst watch that round cheeked Bert Anderson at his old stand in the sale yard. He did be looking for some brown buttons in a can full of them but some thrifty housewife didst beat him to them. We didst think that perchance if Bert went on a liquid diet he might have less need of them. Howbeit his cheery disposition might disappear with his waist line and that indeed would be a sadness.

Art a newcomer in these parts and doest wish for that city paper dependable to the housewife and mother. A bit of disinfectant for Marys run-around and a gargle for Johns sore throat that always has the faculty of starting up afresh on a club day or in the midst of house cleaning. Pay a visit to Omer at his Owyhee Drug Store and lay in a fresh supply for spring. Twas about this the time of year too that our mother didst brew the sarafas tea for us. And not half as bad it was to take as some of these modern concoctions folk have taken to in place of the good old tea and coffee.

Art a new comre in these parts and doest wish to read that city paper you were wont to read at thy breakfast table. Well that ye may not have but ten chances to one that you may get it Sunday edition at the Nyssa Pharmacy.

Now Mr. Jackson doest sell every thing that there be in the building line in quantities large or small but he does carry a lump coal besides that doest surpass all others that we have used.

And Al Thompson and his son Herschel have a chicken feed that will make the drooping hen on the ranch sit up and cackle in glee at the eggs she is laying.

Thou mayest have a fine stove and have taken all the prizes in cooking in the county but if thou doest have no place to put thy stove then thou canst not cook and all thy talent will be as a sweet blossom wafting its fragrance into the desert atmosphere. But if this be thy fix it need not be so long. For if thou wilt have a chat with Della Curtis at the Bernard Eastman Realty company she wilt surely have some place where thou mayest park thy stove and hang thy hat and call it home.

Or see Hugh Glasgow or the Nyssa Realty, these will show thee how to own thine own.

Didst join the crowd who called into see the new things at the Golden Rule on Saturday. Then we need not tell thee how fine they are and if thou didst not see them all we can say that to really appreciate this new store thou must visit it thyself.

The Cash Grocery didst change its name from that to Ramsey's Market but that is all they didst change for the same courteous clerks and the same fine stock of edible is still there.

Whether one be fish eaters these past weeks or still cling to the flesh of animals for their staff of life Butch and Dick didst have it for us for always it be their desire to serve their customers with the foods that they wish and in the way they wish. Shop in Nyssa with Journal advertisers and thou wilt not waste thy time and thy gas going farther.
