We Will Never Forget!

People learn slowly, forget easily... but some impressions are imprinted forever upon our minds. The quiet, steadfast devotion to our country, although a field in Flanders is now their resting place was characteristic of our boys 20 years ago... as it was characteristic of those who fought for our flag before them in wars of another day. And who has the courage to say to their dead: "You died for nothing; we shall fight again?" Let us pray that the seed of their ideals brings forth the fruit of peace. They died for peace. We who live must preserve it in the name of their ideals... in the name of our civilization.
