"OF HUMAN HEARTS"

Walter Huston heads a sterling cast of well-known players, in "Of Human Hearts," dramatic story of the Civil War which opens a two day showing at the Nyssa theatre Friday.

As Ethan Wilkins, an itinerant minister, whose quiet sacrifices make it possible for an ungrateful son to become a famous surgeon, Huston has been given his most powerful acting role since "Dodsworth."

The picture, adapted to the screen from an original story "Benefits Forgot," by Honore Morrow, was directed by Clarence Brown who recently completed "Conquest," starring Greta Garbo and Charles Boyer. James Stewart and Beulah Bondi have outstanding roles.

Which Food is Cheapest?

SUGAR gives you more energy for less money than any common food. Add to this the fact that sugar beets assure to the farmer a higher cash return per acre than any other major American crop and you have a combination of facts which entitles the industry to the support and encouragement of every true American... housewives, farmers, canneries, statesmen. Besides, if America is to be self-supporting in times of war or interruption of foreign trade, the support and encouragement of the beet sugar industry at all times is absolutely essential.
