"A changeless Christ for a changing world."

LOWER BIG BEND

Vacation Bible school came to a happy end Friday afternoon, when the parents picked up the school house with the teachers and children. In the evening the 30 children gave a program and had a nice exhibition of the handy craft and other art work done. R. G. Chandler, missionary for the American Union Sunday school presented the certificates. A bible was given to Edna Wilson for the girl who had learned the most Bible verses. Wilma Wilson second, received a new Testament. Dale Teter received a nice book for the boy to do outstanding memory work.

The Bible school teachers, who lived in the teachers cottage returned to the homes. Miss Nina Billings to Caldwell and Miss Margurita Sandiland took the bus for Seattle. While here they made calls in 20 homes. We hope they'll be with us again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rush of Elgin, visited at the Wm. Teter home Sunday and took the three daughters of Mrs. Miles Teter home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ocimica have been enjoying the visit of relatives from Boise over the Fourth.

Miss Regina Ocimica who has been helping her aunt in Marsing since school was out, was home for the Fourth. She left the following morning for Marsing.

Little Barbara Russell is under the care of Dr. Sarazin with blood poisoning in her foot caused by stepping on a nail. Tuesday she had the bone scraped and is confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bernard of Burns, formally of the Bend were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stradley over the Fourth.

The celebration at the park was well attended the Fourth regardless of the three showers we had during the day and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Welsh of Boise visited at the Thomas Welsh home Monday evening also attended the celebration at the park for a while.

Ed Abbi is the owner of a new combine.

Mrs. Cecil Case and Verna left Monday evening for Weiser where she will visit at the Louie Howell home.

Mrs. Ray Cartwright received word that her father, George Cartwright had suffered a stroke. He was in Vale at the time but was removed to his home in Caldwell. He is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abbi and family left Friday for northern Idaho where they will spend the Fourth with Mr. Abbi's brother and family.
