

LOCAL NEWS

Visit in Council—
Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell were week end guests at her sisters home in Council.

House Guest—
Kenneth Miller of Portland was a Tuesday night guest at the Frank Morgan home.

Sisters Visits—
Mrs. Dick Riseling and her two daughters of Lewiston, Idaho are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Anderson. Mrs. Riseling and Mrs. Anderson are sisters.

Traveling Gavel—
The Snake River grange of near Weiser will present the traveling gavel to the Oregon Trail grange on November 9 which will be next Wednesday. They will also put on the drills and will give an evening of model grange work. Oregon Trail grange invites all grange members to be present.

Relief—
Mrs. Burger of Ontario is at the city hall each Wednesday in regard to relief matters in the city. In the absence of any regular assistant Mrs. Dick Tensen is helping her in her work.

Building New Home—
Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tensen that Mr. and Mrs. William Bothalmey, nee Miss Tiena Tensen, arrived safe at North Hollywood and are soon to start building their own house.

Daughter Born—
Mr. and Mrs. Carol Tucker of Emmett are announcing the birth of a son which was born Sunday morning. Mrs. Tucker will be remembered in Nyssa as Deana Smith and whose marriage was a social event of last fall. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith of this city are the grandparents of the newcomer and Miss Dorris Smith an aunt.

Address Change—
Those who have received their Journal via Ontario route and are now changing their mailing address to Nyssa route 2 will receive their Journal the same way if they will but notify the Journal office in time to allow for the change in the files.

Library Open—
The city library will be opened on Wednesdays from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. when books may be borrowed, exchanged and returned. The former dates of opening still remain unchanged. It is regretted that the person taking the valuable volume on aviation presented to the library as a personal gift by U. S. Representative Walter M. Pierce this spring still sees fit to keep it. In his usual interest for eastern Oregon and realizing the financial shortage in the city library funds, Mr. Pierce very generously presented this unusual volume to the library as a reference book that it might be read by every one but was not to be taken from the library.

BE SURE TO VOTE TUESDAY.

Infant Born—
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Allison from the new land are announcing the birth of a daughter, which was born at the Dixon nursing home on Wednesday night with Dr. L. A. Maulding in attendance. The name of the new comer is Sheron Rae.

Lodge to Give Work—
Third degree work for Nyssa candidates will be given by the Ontario Odd Fellows degree team at the hall in Ontario Friday night. Those going with the candidates will meet at Maxie's confectionery at 7:30. A. R. Connors of Ontario, special district deputy grand master, was present at Tuesday night's meeting and referred to the coming of Geo. I. Briel of Southgate, Ky., a noted speaker, who will address public meetings at Boise and Pendleton on the nights of November 11 and 12, respectively.
