1938 RED CROSS POSTER

The appealing figure of the Red Cross nurse presents a plea for your annual membership in the Red Cross during the roll call, beginning Armistice Day and ending Thanksgiving Day. This is the official 1938 poster of the Red Cross, and appears in the form of a window card.

WHEN DISASTER COMES

BEGINNING tomorrow and ending on Thanksgiving day, The American Red Cross will hold its annual drive for membership.

Every one of us should feel that it is a privilege to become a member of this great humanitarian organization. The sole purpose for the existence of the Red Cross is to help those who find themselves victims of catastrophes, which the local communities cannot meet. We have all read of the great work that the American Red Cross has done during floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, and other calamities. Perhaps we have felt a bit detached from the misery and affliction that have followed in the wake of these things. But there is no assurance that something of a like nature may not be visited upon us in our own community.

To carry on this great work, it is necessary to have funds, and workers, workers that will see that these funds are collected and transmitted to headquarters from within our respective communities. We can lighten the load of these self sacrificing people by giving our share in advance, and by urging our neighbors to do likewise. It is our humble suggestion that the various clubs could do much to help these workers by inducing the individual members to contribute to the secretary of the club and have that secretary make the contribution to the local Red Cross worker.

Let us all resolve this year, to give all that we can to the American Red Cross.

Bring the Family to CHURCH

PARMA LUTHERAN CHURCH

A. A. Schmidt, Pastor
XXIII Trinity. Gospel: Matt. 18, 23-35. Epistle: Phil. 1, 3-11.

In order to save men from the tragic future of being eternally begotten sons that who ever believe in him should not perish but have everlasting life. God's answer to the crying need of man's immortal soul, which was doomed to everlasting condemnation because of man's sin and sinful nature, and his humiliated, smitten, bleeding, crucified son, Calvary and all that went before it is the price God paid to save men.

It is the purpose of the Lutheran church to offer eternity-bound men, women, and children God's gracious gift of eternal life in Christ Jesus. The church does this thru the preaching of the everlasting Gospel. We urge you to accept this offer of God's salvation for your precious soul, next Sunday, at the Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Worship service 10:30 a. m.
We long to share the Gospel with you. Will you come?
