FLETCHER-PINKERTON

At a 1 o'clock service last Sunday Miss Margaret Pinkerton became the bride of Harold Fletcher at a quiet wedding in Caldwell.

The simple ring service was read by Dr. H. H. Hayman of the College or Idaho in the presence of the bride's father, N. H. Pinkerton and Miss Charlene Crawford of Nyssa and Miss Joyce Whitmore of Caldwell.

The bride's gown was an afternoon frock of wine velvet and with it she wore a corsage of white flowers.

Mrs. Fletcher is one of Nyssa's most popular young women and is a daughter of Mr. N. H. Pinkerton and the late Mrs. Pinkerton. It was because of the recent death of her mother that the bride chose such a quiet setting to plight her troth.

Mrs. Fletcher spent much of her girlhood in Nyssa graduated from its high school and this spring graduated from the College of Idaho.

Mr. Fletcher is at present employed at the sugar factory and up until the last six months was a resident of Los Angeles.
