OWYHEE

The Christmas operetta "The Cross Patch Fairie" given by the lower grades in the Owyhee school was witnessed by a large audience Thursday evening. All characters were in costume and much credit is given to the teachers for the splendid manner in which each child portrayed his part. The picture book characters in their costumes with Mr. and Mrs. Santa and their helpers and the good and bad fairies all combined to make a brilliant and pleasing scene. The upper grades very beautifully portrayed the scene at the Manger in Bethlehem. The shepherds and wise men visits with the angels in the background all blended to make a beautiful and inspiring picture.

Group singing was excellent through both plays, solos were rendered by Georgia Glass, Twalla Wolf, Iris Hite and Lois Patton. A vested choir of the upper grade boys and girls sang the Christmas carols by candle light lead by Mrs. John Colley principal of the school. The pianist was Kathryn Robertson from the south part of our district. Much favorable comment regarding each number has been expressed.
