"GANG FIGHT"

The students participating in the gang fight last week probably had lots of fun but their means of warfare seemed a bit dangerous. Rocks and B-B guns may provide a good means of defence but someone could have easily been hurt. Bodily injury may have resulted, turning fun into sorrow.

The fight itself seems a bit foolish since the students should be co-operating in school affairs instead of settling their arguments in "gang fights."

In the future we hope disputes in school may be settled in a more peaceful means.—M. K.

OUR VISITORS

A group of Chemistry students from Nampa visited school last Friday after having gone through the chemistry room at the College of Idaho in Caldwell and the Nyssa sugar beet factory.

From their appearance and conversation they seemed to be very well pleased with their sight-seeing trip.

Students showed exceptionally good behavior while visiting the different classes in our school, causing little disturbance among the teachers and students who were attending their classes.

Nyssa students should profit by the example of good behavior they put before us.—S. P.

WHAT VALUE EDUCATION?

How educated will we be when we graduate?

Every student in high school probably has some idea of what he expects of his school career. Naturally attending school five days a week will have some kind of an effect on us. Just what this effect is depends largely upon what we desire it to be.

The crowd we associate with shapes our manners and ideas a great deal. Habits are also formed in school. Are we developing lazy habits such as trying to "get by"?

In developing an all around personality one should try to make his education help him to reach his highest goal.—F. F.

Where? Oh! Where?

Has anyone seen our school spirit running around anywhere? It might even be hiding some place. Anyway no one has seen it for quite awhile.

Our pep is also gone. I guess we'll have to hire a detective or two and try and find them both. Now don't worry about the expenses. What do we care about a little expense when we need our pep?

So let's all get together and get some student body meetings and work out some more yells. At the future ball games we'll all be there with a lot of pep and out yell all of them. Is it a go?—J. A.

their 60th wedding anniversary.

R. L. Haworth went to Vale Monday to serve on the jury.

A group of friends gathered at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Woods Wednesday.

SPORTS GOSSIP

By Willard Whitman
The Nyssa basketball squad has now won eight of the ten games played and established one of the most impressive season strats in several years.

In the last several games, the players were more consistent with their shots and handling of the ball. It seems that the boys take the game more seriously when there are several experienced substitutes pushing them for positions in the starting lineup.

Dudley Mausing has improved greatly this year. This season, his first, was preceded only by experience in a gym class. He is still high point man in scoring.

The attendance at the home games has been good up until the Saturday night game. The students and basketball fans took their enthusiasm to Ontario Friday night but evidently were not greatly attracted by the Joseph team from outside of the Snake River Valley conference.

Last week's junior edition erroneously stated the number of points scored by Harold Holmes. Harold has scored 10 points for the first squad and not 0 as it was printed.

We must of course not omit the score of the Ontario game from this column. It was a rough hard fought contest but the Bulldogs proved to be the tougher and won 21-14. The Joseph game ended 31-23 in Nyssa's favor.

This week's New Plymouth and Baker. Nyssa has not been beaten since the Parma game played December 16. We may extend this winning streak another week. At any rate we hope.

CITY, COUNTRY BOYS HAVE FEUD AT LOCAL STOCK YARDS

The state and city police halted a "gang fight" between the country boys and town boys Friday.

The boys started the "feud" early last week, but the argument didn't reach the top until Friday. Some of the town boys were accused of calling the country boys "yellow farmers" and this didn't set well with the latter group. The out of town organized an army and agreed to meet the city boys at the stock yards.

Superintendent Hollenberg heard of the plans and notified the police. Officers picked up several boys and reported their names to Mr. Hollenberg. After this happened the rest of the boys gave up the idea of a fight.

BOOK REVIEW

By Zelda Brown
If you desire to travel but find that that art is confined to few miles around you own home then take a book tour. Let the easy chair be your seat and Richard Halliburton's "Glorious Adventure" be your passport.

Mr. Halliburton is a genius at discovering adventure. He finds it everywhere and anywhere; in out-of-way spots and forgotten corners of the world. In "The Glorious Adventure" he excels even his former capacity for adventure.

In this book we visit places that sound as if they come from a book of fiction. Countries so small that their population does not exceed a few hundred people. We climb high mountains and cross great deserts. We mingle with many nationalities and learn their customs and manners. It is with surprise that we find ourselves again in familiar surroundings and only a book to remind us of our "Glorious Adventure," so vivid are the word pictures drawn by Richard Halliburton.

This book can be found in the Nyssa high school library.

Sealed bids for the construction of the new high school will be accepted January 28. The footing for the new building has been poured and the walls of the basement are being filled.
