WELL KNOWN NYSSA GIRL MARRIES
On Tuesday of last week Miss Jenny Koopman, daughter of Fred Koopman became the bride of Willis E. Findling, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Findling at a quiet wedding in Nampa.

The single ring service was read by the Rev. Donaldson at the Methodist parsonage and the happy pair left immediately after for Boise to spend a short honeymoon. The bride's costume was a blue street frock and coat with black accessories.

Mrs. Findling is well known and liked throughout this community, as she was born and raised here and graduated from the Nyssa school. Since graduation she has kept the home for her father just west of Nyssa and it is there that Mr. and Mrs. Findling will make their future home.

RETTIG-HALL
Of much interest to Nyssa people is the wedding of Clarence Rettig of Jamison, Ore., to Miss Emma Hall of Gettysburg, S. D., which took place quietly in Payette Tuesday afternoon, January 17. They were accompanied by the bride's brother, Floyd Hall, and Miss Caroline Kandy, both of Nyssa. A wedding supper was served shortly after the ceremony. They are "at home" to friends here. The bridegroom is an employee at the sugar factory, while Mrs. Rettig has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Clifford Fox, since she accompanied her husband, Floyd Hall and Clifford Fox to Nyssa from a holiday visit spent with her parents and friends in Gettysburg the forepart of this month.
