

SOCIETY

SURPRISE PARTY

On last Thursday evening about twenty friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Findling gave them a surprise party at the Fred Koopman home. Games and visiting and a basket supper provided by the guests made up the evening's entertainment. The young couple were also presented with a much appreciated wedding gift.

MR. AND MRS. ENTERTAINED

The Mr. and Mrs. club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan on Wednesday evening with a dinner and contract following. Miss Eva Boydell was a guest for the evening and high score in contract was made by Mr. Arthur Boydell, and second high was made by Mrs. Frank Hall.

MASONS ENTERTAIN

The first dance given by the Masons and the Eastern Star in their new hall on Thursday night was a most enjoyable affair with over a hundred couples taking advantage of the excellent floor and music provided.

REBEKAHS TO GIVE CARD PARTY

One of the coming social events of the season is the pinochle party and luncheon to be given by the Rebekah lodge, Yellow Rose No. 202, at the American Legion hall next Thursday night, February 9. The Rebekahs extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend their card party, pinochle playing at tables in the hall, or in the basement if required, to begin at 8 o'clock. Prizes are to be awarded to women and men high and low scorers at the conclusion of the games. As the affair is to be given for the benefit of the L. O. O. F. and Rebekah building fund, a nominal charge for the couple is to be made. Lunch will be served free to pinochle players after the games.

PINOCHLE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bennett entertained a number of their friends with a pinochle party and late supper at their home Monday evening. Mrs. Owen Gann and Mrs. Homer Earnest won high and low prizes for the women and Loren Earnest and Cecil Hagen high and low for the men. Those present at the enjoyable affair were Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Crocker, J. C. Greer, Owen Gann, Cecil Pagen, Homer Earnest and Frank Crocker; Loren Earnest, Homer Russon and Freddie Bennett.

DINNER PARTY

Complimenting the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Ella Hilton, C. Klinkenberg, W. W. Foster, Mrs. Harry Russell and James W. Prayn all of which will fall on February 3, Mr. and Mrs. C. Klinkenberg entertained at a dinner party last Sunday. Besides those honored, guests included their husbands and wives and Lester Klinkenberg. Due to illness Mrs. Hilton and James Prayn were unable to attend.
