

Home Recipes THE MODERN WOMAN Styles Society

GRATSBURG-HENDERSON
Surprising their friends, Mrs. Anna Henderson, daughter of Mrs. Jenale Baker of Nyssa and Fred Kratsburg of Parma slipped away to Payette on Wednesday and were quietly married by the justice of the peace.

Following the ceremony they returned to Nyssa and are living with the bride's mother until a home is made ready at a ranch just west of Nyssa.

On Thursday evening about thirty of their friends gave a charivari and shower for them at Mrs. Baker's home.

STAKE DANCE

The first dance given by the members of the newly formed Weiser Stake of the L. D. S. church was held in the Weiser high school gymnasium last Friday evening and is reported to have been one of the largest and most elaborate of any held in this area lately. At least two hundred couples were there from all over the Stake and from Boise to aid in the festival. Among the many attending from Nyssa were Bishop and Mrs. D. L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kirkham, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Crawford and Gordon Williams.

LADIES AID

On last Thursday the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church were entertained by Mrs. A. V. Pruyn and Mrs. Chas. Garrison at Mrs. Garrison's home. Over thirty members and guests were present. At the regular business meeting Mrs. L. H. Wilcox was chosen to succeed Mrs. Sidney Smith as reporter and a going away gift was presented to Mrs. Smith who left the following day for her new home in Pendleton.

At this time the advisability of forming a missionary society was discussed.

Following the business meeting tea was served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be at Mrs. A. R. Thompson's home.

REBEKAHS GIVE PINOCHLE PARTY

Members of Rebekah Yellow Rose lodge No. 202 delightfully entertained a large group of Nyssa friends at a card party held in the American Legion hall last Thursday night.

Progressive pinochle was played at 11 tables. At the conclusion of the series of games prizes were presented to Mrs. Dale Garrison and Mrs. C. J. Keiser, high and low score winners for women, and to Walter Smith and A. V. Cook, men high and low winners. To Mrs. C. V. Starks went the traveling prize. Following the card games, a lunch was served.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson had as Monday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McLaughlin of near Emmett, Mrs. B. F. Earp and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Thompson.

DINNER PARTY

Complimenting their house guests Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davis of Seattle Mr. and Mrs. William E. Schireman entertained at dinner on Sunday evening at which other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boydell and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Pierson.

EASTERN STAR TEA

On Friday afternoon the members of the Eastern Star entertained at a tea in the new lodge rooms complimenting Mrs. Fay Ambrose of Portland, assistant grand conductress for this district.

The tea followed a class of instruction for officers and other members wishing to attend with Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mrs. J. C. Bowman and Mrs. Herbert Fisher acting as hostesses. Mrs. H. C. Peterson of Ontario, Past Grand Matron was an out of town guest.

CARD PARTY

The card party sponsored by the Oregon Trail Grange and held at the Andrew Boersma home on Saturday evening was very poorly attended with only enough guests present to make four tables of cards. Following the evening's play refreshments were served by the hostesses.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Bernard Frost was hostess to the Tuesday afternoon bridge club and invited Mrs. E. D. Norcott and Mrs. George Sallee as guest players. High scores for the afternoon were made by Mrs. Taylor Gudmundsen and Mrs. Sallee.

WEDNESDAY EVENING BRIDGE

The Wednesday evening bridge club was entertained last week by Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Jesse Thompson was a guest player for the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Aden Wilson, Mrs. Sidney Burbridge and Mrs. E. J. Bowen.

GOOD HEALTH IS PRICELESS!

Protect it during winter with

Gate City Dairy Milk and Cream
Morning and Evening Deliveries

GATE CITY DAIRY
PHONE 104W
At Your Grocers, Too!

Eat more MEAT!

NYSSA PACKING CO
Phone 6

MR. AND MRS. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell entertained the members of the Mr. and Mrs. Club at their home on Wednesday evening with a dinner preceding the card games.

High scores for contract were made by Art Boydell and Mr. Mitchell.

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONTRACT

The ladies of the Wednesday evening bridge club entertained their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McClure this week, with high scores going to Herb Fisher and Mrs. S. Burbridge and second high made by Mr. and Mrs. Ike Brown.

LINCOLN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fox entertained eighteen guests at a pinochle party Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cash Nusser won high scores for the evening and Mrs. Blanche Weeks and Owen Gann went home with consolation prizes. Refreshments were served at the close of the games.

BRIDGE PARTIES

Mrs. Carlos Buchner was hostess on Thursday afternoon and evening at bridge parties. Ladies were invited for three tables each time.

Mrs. Buchner chose the Valentine motif for her table decoration and spring shades were followed out in the rooms with bowls filled with cut sweet peas.

Prizes for the afternoon were won by Mrs. E. J. Powell, Mrs. J. J. Sarazin and Mrs. Kenneth Cottle. In the evening by Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Kenneth Christ and Mrs. James Dahlhausen.

SURPRISE PARTY

Complimenting the birthday anniversary of Leo Fife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther E. Fife and other members of the family and close friends surprised him with a dinner and party at his home on Friday evening last week. Chinese checkers were enjoyed during the evening.

MARZENE HOLLENBERG HOME

Marzene Hollenberg with two class mates from Eastern Oregon Normal, Miss Shirley Parker of North Powder and Greta Hossman of Burns spent Monday evening and Tuesday with her parents, Superintendent and Mrs. Leo Hollenberg.

The girls were members of the Eastern Oregon Normal glee club which was on a tour giving recitals in the schools of Huntington, Vale and Nyssa.

LOCAL NEWS

Returns Home—

Mrs. Andy McGinnis returned home on Tuesday from a visit with her son's family.

Sunshine Club—

Mrs. W. H. Beam and Mrs. Andy McGinnis will be hostesses for the Sunshine club on Saturday, February 25 at Mrs. McGinnis' home.

Father's Day Program—

In honor of the fathers of the Kingman Colony school children, the Kingman P. T. A., is giving a social and special program at the school house Friday, Feb. 17, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. McCoy Improving—

Mrs. C. L. McCoy underwent an operation at the Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario on Monday morning and is reported to be making a satisfactory recovery.

Kingman Grange Play—

There will be a play sponsored by the Kingman grange given at the Kingman Colony school house at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Feb. 21.

The cast of the play, "There's a Man in the House," will be made up of a group of players from Parma and gives promise of being an exceptionally fine performance. Every one is welcome.

Local News

In Caldwell—

Mr. and Mrs. Les McClure spent last Wednesday in Caldwell.

Clarence McConnell Ill—

Clarence McConnell is a patient at the Dixon Nursing home this week.

Dinner Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost of Meridian were Tuesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Findling.

Operated Upon—

Mrs. Leslie Bogart who was operated upon at the Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario last week is reported to be recovering slowly.

Home on Sunday—

Miss Anna Beth Carns and John Ernest of Caldwell spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Ernest.

Move to Arco—

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sedgwick and children, who have been occupying the Dr. Long house east of the tracks the past month, moved to Arco, Idaho, last Friday.

Visits in Nyssa—

Mrs. Douglas Benton of Ontario visited over Friday and Saturday at the George Benton home, and Lucille Benton and Clarice Tillman spent Monday and Tuesday with her in Ontario.

W. C. T. U.—

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be at the home of Mrs. Albert Seward on the Idaho side of the river on Tuesday, Feb. 21, with the study theme "The Spirit of Temperance" as symbolized by Francis Willard. Devotionals will be led by Mrs. Leon Highby.

Sunbonnet Lassies—

The Sunbonnet Lassies met with Mrs. Ewen Chard last Saturday with one member absent and one guest present.

After roll call and the regular business meeting the time was spent embroidering and sewing upon articles to be sold at the P. T. A. box supper on February 24. The funds raised from this sale will be added to the funds the club is raising to send a member to the Corvallis 4-H summer school.

The next meeting will be with Bernice Davis on Feb. 22.

Business Trip—

Lumir Svancara, manager of the Nyssa Implement company with his father James Svancara of Buhl, Idaho and James Thompson of Parma spent from Thursday until Sunday on a business trip to Portland. The party was delayed enroute by the heavy snows and land slides along the way.

Sad Journey—

William Coleman who was called to Portland on February 1 by the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. Lulu Perry has returned home after attending her funeral at Haines where the remains were taken for burial.

Victim Recovering—

Mrs. Charles Thompson is rapidly recovering at her home in Emmett from head wounds and shock she sustained in an auto collision nearly two weeks ago, according to Al Thompson, who with Mrs. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Thompson motored to Emmett last Sunday.

Electric Wiring and Contracting. Expert service on all makes of Radios.

Tubes Tested Free

NYSSA ELECTRIC SHOP
Next to Bakery

NEW SIDE WALLS RIGHT OVER THE OLD!

A GRADE FOR EVERY USE

CERTIGRADE SHINGLES

CERTAINLY! WITH RED CEDAR CERTIGRADES!

A New CERTIGRADE Exterior will give Your Home New Beauty!

STUNZ LUMBER CO.
PHONE 110
Southwest of "Y" Nyssa

From Payette—

Mrs. J. J. Whalen of Payette was in Nyssa on business on Wednesday and visited with her sister, Mrs. Les Ernest.

Matron Improves—

Mrs. A. V. Cook who was confined to her bed last week is able to be about again.

Returns From Baker—

Dewey Ray motored down from Baker on Monday to attend to business matters.

Parents Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. Irel Gudmundsen, parents of Taylor Gudmundsen, spent Sunday at their son's home in Nyssa.

Matron Ill—

Mrs. Betty La Frenz has been ill and unable to be out of bed for the last 10 days.

Monday Visitor—

Miss Fay Smith of Ontario was a Monday guest of Mrs. Andrew Boersma.

Added to our gifts for the original period, we will advance the choice of gold watches to the half way mark on March 22.

These beautiful smart time-pieces, purchased at and serviced by Paulus Jewelry Co., Nyssa, have proven exceptionally popular.

—PEGGY

FREE!

THE REFRIGERATOR DEAL OF THE YEAR

5 Beautiful 25% Wool Blankets Included When You Purchase a Modern CORONADO DELUXE REFRIGERATOR.

CORONADO DELUXE—MODEL G68
6.2 Cu. Ft. Capacity—13.4 Sq. Ft. Shelf Area—Triple Sealed, Moisture-proof Insulation—Stainless Porcelain Interior Finish—Patented PRESTO Trays and Rubber Grids—5-Year Protection Plan—

Cash Price $159.50

AUTHORIZED AGENCY GAMBLE STORES
INDIVIDUALLY OWNED AND OPERATED

Geo. C. Henneman, Owner

Phone 106 Nyssa

The More You Have the Cheaper Each One Operates!

★Your electric rates are among the lowest in the nation—and they grow cheaper the more electric appliances you use. As your electrical standard of living goes up, the rate you pay goes down. Electric service, under "step down" rates, is your finest investment, one that pays large dividends in greater comforts, more conveniences, better living. Use cheap electricity freely.

Step Up YOUR JOY OF LIVING

Step Down YOUR ELECTRIC RATE

IDAHO POWER
Electricity Does So MUCH—Costs So LITTLE!