STRAWBERRIES PROVE THE POINT -
SINCE September 1, 1937, it has been the editorial policy of the Nyssa Gate City Journal to point out the necessity of a marketing association for farmers in Malheur county.

OUR PLANNING COMMISSION -
THE city planning commission has taken on a spurt of life again. A committee from that body has been appointed to make recommendations to the city council on a zoning ordinance.

Whatever recommendations that will be made and finally promulgated by the council will not satisfy everyone in Nyssa. But we are a growing city and the need for some restrictions on buildings must be made if we are not to have a hodge podge of shacks alongside of more expensive homes.

CONGRATULATIONS—LIONS OF VALE—
CONGRATULATIONS are in order to those enterprising and civic minded men in Vale who have revived the Lions club in that city.

With over twenty-thousand feet of new sewer under contract, which will serve almost all of the present homes in Nyssa sanitary regulations can be instituted that will do away with the many buildings patterned after the famous "Chic Sales Specials"—it is simply a question of public health.

Many other questions present themselves, but of this we must all make our minds to—some one has to take the lead and if in their leader-

CONGRATULATIONS—LIONS OF VALE—
CONGRATULATIONS are in order to those enterprising and civic minded men in Vale who have revived the Lions club in that city.

The Lions club will be a decided benefit to Vale—for one of the cardinal points of Lionism is that of civic betterment. Nor should any member of the Chamber of Commerce or other service clubs feel apprehensive over the re-birth of the Lions club—rather should they feel that the friendly competition that will ensue will result in only one thing—a better and more civic minded city.

A Lions club is not a mutual admiration club—it's purpose is to do good in any community in which a club is situated—in other words to make the community in which they live more tolerable of their fellowmen and more livable for the community as a whole. CONGRATULATION VALE LIONS.
