CAMERAGRAPHS

CHARM AND EFFICIENCY join hands in this attractive kitchen, which recently achieved national prominence from its recognition by the Modern Kitchen Bureau as "Kitchen of the Month." Knotty pine boards lend an atmosphere of simplicity. Its smiling owner, seen using her labor-saving electric mixer, enjoys the convenience and comforts of modern electrical equipment for cooking, water heating and refrigeration.

BORROWED from the Dutch is the chic ensemble of slate blue crepe with starched lace collar and visor worn by Jane Froman, lovely singing star of the new "Gilt Musical Playhouse" heard over CBS Sundays. Two miniature metal shoes copied after the wooden Holland clogs touch off the Dutch motif.

"COME ON IN, the Water's Fine—and it's Easy To Get A Sunburn!" so say Arline Blackburn and Helen Choat of the Pretty Kitty Kelly radio series. First of the radio stars to brave the Eastern surf this Spring, they're pictured at Orange Grove, N. J., where Helen applies a soothing salve to the sunburned back of Arline—her fictional and true-life pal. (Pretty Kitty Kelly is broadcast every Monday through Friday over CBS at 10:00 a.m., EDT and 12:00 m., PST.)
