KINGMAN 4-H CLUB

The regular meeting of the Kingman 4-H assembly was held Thursday at the school house. Election of officers was held, during the business part of the meeting, the new officers are as follows: President, Susan Zamora; vice-president, Virginia Jarvis. For the boys, Daniel Zamora, president and Jimmie Nichols, vice president, with Nadine Nichols secretary and treasurer for the entire assembly.
Though the assembly funds for transportation has been arranged for all club members who wish to attend the annual 4-H picnic at Vale July 13. It was voted that all who wished to go were to sign up in order that Mrs. Elliot could be sure of how much transportation was needed.
A report on the crops and livestock meetings which are being held twice each month showed a good attendance. Yet leaders mentioned again the fact that who do not attend regularly lost a number of points in their club standing. The next meeting of all livestock and crop projects will be held at the school house, July 11.
At the close of the meeting a marshmallow roast was enjoyed by all who attended the meeting.
The next regular assembly meeting will be held July 26.
