SECOND HALF OF SEASON TO START

The second half of the Idaho-Oregon baseball league will get under way this Sunday. Nyssa scheduled to play Nampa at Nampa, Sunday.

Other games scheduled are, for Sunday Vale at Boise; Caldwell at Ontario; and Payette at Weiser.

Following a general conference of the Idaho-Oregon baseball league in Caldwell on Wednesday evening it was decided that Nyssa would continue her place in the league throughout the coming season.

Not to do so would have meant the loss of place for next year as well as the loss of this years forfeit money. All cities represented in the league were at the conference on Wednesday except Vale.

The protest game between Caldwell and Payette was not allowed by the conference committee as the evidence given was not grounds for protest, also it was decided to discontinue the mid-week games.

The playoff game for the first half will be held on Labor Day at Payette.

All players are urged to be out for practice on Friday evening.

MAN KILLED ON SUCCOR CREEK ROAD

Carl Vernon Hanshaw of Wilder, route 2 met his death in an automobile accident in Succor creek canyon sometime Monday night.

Hanshaw was last seen alive when he left his home at Wilder about 5:30 Tuesday morning in a model T Ford. His body was found about 8:30 Tuesday morning lying at the bottom of a 10 foot drop in the canyon wall seven miles from the Jordan Valley dance hall, pinned beneath the wreckage of the car and badly mangled. Just how the accident occurred or the exact hour of the death is not known.

County Sheriff C. W. Glenn of Vale and County Coroner Tacke of Ontario were notified and left immediately for the scene of the accident and took charge. Bert E. Lienkaemper of the Nyssa funeral home was summoned to take charge of the remains and followed the sheriff's car accompanied by Will E. Schreman.

Gravestone burial services will be held today at Wilder and interment will be at the Wilder cemetery.

Carl Hanshaw was 36 years old and had lived in and around Wilder since 1917 and was well known throughout the valley. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hanshaw of Wilder and a sister.

COLD STORAGE MACHINERY ARRIVES

L. T. (Doc) Marshall today announced that the heavy machinery for his new cold storage plant had arrived.

Installation of the machinery will take care of the first unit of 200 white steel boxes. It is planned to enlarge the plant to 400 boxes. Marshall said that he would probably have an announcement to make next week regarding the opening of his plant, which will be one of the most modern in the Valley.

FIRE DESTROYS HAY AND BARN

Fire, of undetermined origin, destroyed a haystack, barns, hay derrick and feed racks on the Frank Wilbur ranch located southwest of Nyssa, Friday night, at 12:30.

Winley Clowers, Nyssa cream station manager, was returning to Nyssa when he noticed the blaze and roused Wilbur.

Wilbur, Clowers and neighbors formed a bucket brigade but were unsuccessful in their attempts to put out the blaze.

The loss was not covered by insurance.

YOUTH BURNED AS TRUCK CATCHES ON FIRE

By Mrs. JAMES MCGINNIS

ADRIAN (Special) — Jesse Doty suffered burns about the hands and face, when the truck which he was driving caught fire on the Huntington grade.

Doty was driving the truck to La Grande and on reaching the Huntington grade looked back and noticed that his truck was on fire. Stopping the truck, Doty tried to extinguish the flames with little success. He then decided to drive on to Huntington, with the hope that the fire department there could save the truck.

In a short time the flames were shooting through the cab forcing him to leave the truck, but not before he had suffered burns.

The truck was a total loss.

GIRL SCOUTS GO TO ENCAMPMENT

On Monday morning early 32 girls scouts of the Nyssa troop with their leader Mrs. Grant Rinehart and her assistants will leave for their annual summer encampment at Payette Lakes and will be gone for a week.

Among those assisting Mrs. Rinehart will be Mrs. Dick Tensen who will oversee the kitchen, Miss Katherine Olsen who will supervise handicraft and Miss Vera Jensen who will be lieutenant and first assistant to Mrs. Rinehart.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ANSWERS CALL

The Nyssa volunteer fire department was called out at 2:15 p. m. last Friday, to put out a grass fire in the northwest part of town.

The fire was started by a small boy playing with matches. The department had little to do as the associates of the youngster had it nearly out when the department arrived on the scene.

CCC WORKING AT MORGAN PARK

The clearing and levelling of Morgan Park was started this morning with the arrival of 20 C.C.C. enrollees.

It is estimated that the work will be completed by tomorrow night. The Morgan Park Garden club put on a special lunch for the boys today at noon.

When the clearing and levelling is completed the county agent, R. H. McKennon, will arrange to have the services of a landscaping specialist available for the landscaping of the park, according to Mrs. E. L. Jamison, president of the park.

On Thursday Mrs. Jamison, was visited by Judge David F. Graham, Commissioner Charles Marshall, Assessor Murray Morton and county engineer J. Edwin Johnson.

WASHINGTON NEWS

curity act to increase old-age benefits. Rolls of the aged receiving federal-state aid last month, June, were 1,848,700. Average amount being paid at present in Oregon is $21.30; in Washington, $22.10; California, $32.50; Idaho, $21.75, lowest Arkansas, $6.15. Proposed amendments aim to increase these but defeated a few months ago was calculated to give approximately $40 monthly. Important part of the proposed social security amendment is to start making payments under this act next January instead of in 1942. In this fund, June 1, there was $1,098,814,347, of which 17 million dollars came from 3 per cent interest on treasury securities. Looks like a happy New Year for several million elderly people.

Oregon Tops The List

More mountain lions were killed in Oregon last year than in any other state or Alaska. In total take of fur-bearing animals, Oregon ranks 19th; Washington 22nd. Oregon take was 66,800 animals of 13 species; muskrats numbered 49,100; mink 6800, common skunks 3600. Washington take was 50,300 animals of 16 species; muskrats 35,159, minks 5200, coyotes 3000.

Help For Truck Garden Farmers

New policy of the federal surplus commodities corporation will aid truck garden farmers. The plan is to buy in farmers' markets fresh vegetables during certain periods of surplus production, as a means of assisting vegetable growers engaged in efforts to improve marketing conditions. All vegetables bought by FSCC will be given to state welfare agencies for distribution to needy families.

Gasoline From the Farm

This week the government launches an experiment to seek farm-courtesy motor fuels. The experiment will be undertaken with a view to making liquid, gaseous and solid motor fuels from potatoes, corn, wheat, beans and other crops. Object: to find cheaper motor fuel and develop new uses for crops which are frequently surplus.
