OUR FARMERS AND "WAR CROPS"
In the last war (or rather the starting of this one) wheat farmers made a "killing", with $2 wheat.
Caution, however, should be exercised by all farmers in all types of war crops this time.

Other crops will be affected to about the same situation, one of which is the sugar beet crop. Cuba now will become one of our chief competitors in the world sugar market, and thanks to our agricultural policy the American farmer will be bound to keep his production down to about 30 per cent of our domestic market, while our "friends" to the south will be allowed (and encouraged) to sell to the American consumer as well as to the world, while we sit by and wonder what to do with our farm lands.

A COMMUNITY FRIEND LEAVES
FLOYD White, pastor of the local Methodist church, announced this week that he was taking over the pastorate in Ontario.
To the many persons who have known Mr. White this announcement will be received with mixed emotion.

While not a member of his church, this writer has the highest personal regards for Mr. White—for he is without a doubt one of the most approachable ministers that we have ever met. There is nothing in his demeanor that suggests that "holier than thou" attitude that so many men of the gospel cultivate.
