THRIFT PARTY

The Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is inviting everyone to attend their Thrift desert bridge party, which they will hold in the Parish hall on the afternoon of Friday, October 27th. Dessert will be served at one thirty and tables will be arranged for both contract and auction bridge.

The price of admission will be usable clothing or household goods which may be used at the Thrift sales held each Saturday, but in case of a lack of such commodities, an admission fee of twenty-five cents may be paid instead.

Arrangements are in charge of the committee of which Mrs. Frank Morgan is chairman.

As these Saturday sales are benefitting so many people who without them, would be unable to buy needed garments for winter, it is hoped that everyone will attend, enjoy an afternoon of entertainment and know that the things they have no need of will find their way to someone who can use them.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE

The Tuesday afternoon bridge club was entertained by Mrs. Burdall S. Brown and guests were invited to make up an extra table. High scores for the guests was made by Mrs. Keith Bailey and by the members by Mrs. Sidney Burdick and Mrs. C. L. McCoy.

TEACHERS' RECEPTION

The teachers' reception and the dedication of the new high school building sponsored by the Nyssa Civic club and the Oregon Trail Grange will be held at the high school auditorium on Wednesday, November first at eight o'clock in the evening.

It is customary to hold this official welcome to the Nyssa teaching staff earlier in the season, but it was delayed this year in order that all the new school equipment might be in place and ready to be seen by all those desiring to inspect it.

The sponsors are extending a hearty welcome to all persons living in Nyssa and to those dwelling on the new and old lands to attend and get acquainted.

The program arrangements are under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert H. Fisher and the refreshment service is in charge of a committee with Mrs. Bernard Frost, chairman.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party for Mr. Rommel Moss and Wiley Clowers was given on Saturday night by a group of their friends at the Clowers home.

Four tables of pinocle were in play during the evening and a late supper was served when the games were ended.

STAR TO GIVE CARD PARTY

The Eastern Star will give a card party at the Masonic hall on Thursday, November second, at eight o'clock in the evening to which the public is invited.

Tables will be provided for bridge and pinocle and other games. An admission charge will be made of twenty-five cents a person which will include refreshments.

CIVIC CLUB MEETING CHANGED

HOME FURNISHINGS TOPIC OF TALK

Home furnishing, arrangement, color harmony, home lighting and other factors in the furnishing of a home will be discussed by Miss Joan Patterson, extension specialist in home furnishings from Oregon State college at a series of meetings scheduled in various Malheur county communities between October 30 and November 7. These meetings have been scheduled with the co-operation of various community clubs through the county agent's office.

All of the meetings will begin at 10:30 a. m. and will be completed by 4:00 p. m. Various luncheon arrangements have been made in the different communities by the community club committees in charge. Ladies who plan to attend one of these meetings should determine in their own community how the noon luncheon will be handled.

Miss Patterson has had several years of experience in home furnishing work and is able to present many interesting and useful ideas in her demonstration and lecture. All homemakers in the various communities are invited to attend. Miss Patterson will remain in the county on November 8 and 9 to make personal home visits where ladies indicate they would like some special advice on furnishings in their homes.

The following is a schedule of the meeting places and the general chairman for each meeting:

Monday, October 30, Parish hall, Nyssa, Mrs. A. Boersma, general chairman; Tuesday, October 31, J. Wm. Turner home, Oregon Slope, Mrs. Don Joseph, general chairman; Wednesday, November 1, R. R. McDaniel home, Willowcreek, Mrs. J. E. McKim, general chairman; Thursday, November 2, Adrian high school, Mrs. Ada Perry, general chairman; Friday, November 3, Grove Community hall, Mrs. D. K.
