A Needy Family Reported—

From all indications the need of outside help for the Christmas season for the needy families will be almost a minus quantity in the community this year, for so far only one family has been reported to the Journal.

This family, however, is in real need, the father is in the hospital and has been unable to work more than an occasional day at a time since the family arrived several months ago. Due to time limits on relief, the authorities are not able to do much for them. The home is a tent in the sage brush with only the barest of necessities, and very little food and fuel. There are four children, two of them in school and one of whom, an eight-year-old boy, is badly in need of shoes. All need warm and clean clothing and some toys for a boy of seven and eight, and girls, one five and one 2½. Any one wishing to help them may leave their gifts at the Journal office and we will see that they are delivered safely.

Master Herb Purvis appointed the following committees for the new year: Agricultural committee, Bill Jacobson, Frank Pullerton and Ed Charles; finance, James McKim, Earl Caverhill and Grover Feldman; home economics, Olive McLay, Eleanor Bradford and Mrs. Pullerton; publicity, Mrs. Erle H. Parker.
