Mr. and Mrs. Jake Simmons are entertaining Mrs. Simmons' mother and her grandparents from the east this week.

At Dinner Party—

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson and their family and Miss Betty Tillman of Nyssa were among the guests invited to a birthday anniversary dinner party at the Eric Peterson home in Apple Valley on Sunday.

To Speak—

Mrs. Whitney, now living in Home-dale, has been secured by the entertainment committee of the Civic Club to speak before that group at their next meeting, March 22nd at the Parish hall. Mrs. Whitney will tell of interesting experiences and observations she made while on a recent trip to central Europe.

Assists In Installation—

Peggy Driscoll of Jordan Valley, senior in home economics at Oregon State college, took part here this week-end in the 25th anniversary of the installation of Alpha Chi Omega as the first national society to be organized on the O. S. C. campus. Miss Driscoll is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Garden Pictures To Be Shown—

On March 16 Mrs. H. O. Mansfield of Freewater, regional state garden club director, will give an illustrated talk at the Adrian high school auditorium. The program is being sponsored by the Modern Pioneer club of Newell Heights and by the Pollyanna club of Kingman Colony. All those interested in garden club activities are invited to attend.

Evangelical Services—

The evangelical services held at the Church of the Nazarene on Sixth near Main each evening are drawing large and interested audiences.

The special speaker is the Rev. H. T. Davis of Indiana and the song services are under the direction of Evangelical Singer A. L. Crane of Nyssa.

The public is offered a cordial invitation by Rev. Vern Martin and the members of his parish to attend.

Rest Room To Be Improved—

The committee of the Civic club which has been appointed to decorate the ladies rest room of the city hall, announced that the work will probably be completed this next week. It is planned to provide a comfortable day bed and dressing table as the main addition. Lavatory facilities were installed when the building was built and a mirror donated by a friend at that time. The committee working on the project are Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mrs. Garret Stam and Mrs. S. B. Davis.

Daughter Improves—

Carolyn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garrison of Jamieson, was taken to the Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario Tuesday of last week with pneumonia but has improved enough to be taken home. Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, who have been staying at the parental Charles Garrison home during the illness of the child, brought her to Nyssa on Wednesday and left for Jamieson today.

Farm Meeting In Adrian—

A follow-up meeting to the meeting held in Ontario of the Malheur County Land Use Conference, was held at the Adrian high school auditorium on Thursday at which time the local problems of land and crop problems were discussed. Prof. Hyslop of the state college, County Agent Russell McKennon and Pete Tensen presided. A large and interested group of local farmers attended.

Farm Sales—

Farm sales in this area are becoming what might be referred to as big business, so many are there of them and so brisk the buying from the big crowds attending every one.

On Monday afternoon an exceptionally large sale was held at the Fred Osterkamp ranch east of the river where bidding was especially lively and everything sold brought pleasing returns, with Col. Bert Anderson at the busy end of the gavel.

Col. Anderson will officiate at two other sales in this vicinity in the near future. The first will be on March 12th at the Owen Robinson ranch southwest of the Apple Valley school house. There will be some especially fine dairy cattle offered at this time. All registered and high grade Jerseys.

The other will be held at the R. Cornell ranch on Grand Avenue, southwest of Nyssa.

At all these sales, purchasers are warned to remember that everything is sold for cash and no article nor stock can be removed from the premises until paid for.

Receives Word of Father's Death—

John Bishop received the news of his father's death in New York on Saturday morning and left that day for his home. Funeral services were being delayed until the son's arrival.

Nyssa Hospital—

With one baby born and other patients going and coming this week has been a busy one at the Nyssa hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gifford a boy was born on Monday with Dr. J. J. Sarazin in charge. The youngster has been named William Clifford. Mrs. Ray Drown underwent a minor operation performed by Dr.

Sarazin and Dr. Kerby at the hospital and is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. H. P. Chaney was a patient from Saturday until Tuesday and under the care of Dr. Sarazin.

Mrs. Willis Dean Helton received medical care at the hospital the first of the week.

Mrs. Ella Hilton is still receiving care at the hospital.

Mrs. Town Shows Improvement—

Mrs. Herman Towne, who has been at the hospital in Ontario for several weeks under the care of Dr. L. A. Maulding, will undergo her eleventh transfusion today. While still seriously ill, Mrs. Towne is reported to be slightly improved.

On Student Committee—

Lloyd Wilson, Nyssa, has been appointed a member of the student committee in charge of distribution of the "March of Dimes" tags in the drive to send three University of Oregon swimmers to the national swimming meet at Yale University.

Wilson is a graduate of Nyssa high school and is a junior majoring in business administration. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wilson.

Parsonage Completed—

The parsonage of the Church of the Nazarene is about completed. The dwelling back of the church edifice has been plumbed and modernized and two rooms added to the original structure. The building will be used to house Rev. Martin and his family until the new parsonage is completed, probably later in the year and then it will be given over to church and Sunday school activities. The congregation has grown so rapidly as to render the new church building inadequate.

Car Accident—

Mrs. George Webster suffered painful injuries when the car driven by Mr. Webster overturned on the road to Nyssa from their Nyssa Heights home, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster were coming to Nyssa when Mr. Webster attempted to wipe the inside of the windshield while driving and lost control of the wheel. The car left the road and slid into a culvert, throwing Mrs. Webster against the door window and breaking her glasses. A badly lacerated face was the result of the broken glasses and when Mrs. Webster was taken to Dr. K. E. Kerby for treatment it was found necessary to take several stitches.

Mr. Webster was uninjured and the car suffered only slight damage.
