SILVER WEDDING CELEBRATED

On Sunday, October 27, a group of friends and relatives attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cartright at their home in Big Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Cartright were married at the home of Mrs. Cartright's parents near Weiser, Idaho, on October 30, 1915, the Rev. Collier of the Baptist church officiating.

The guest presented Mr. and Mrs. Cartright with many gifts and best wishes before the dinner was served.

Present were: Mrs. Naomi Wright of Nampa, mother of Mrs. Cartright; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wright and children of Vale; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lawler of Sunny Slope; Mrs. John Leinhard and son of Nyssa; Mr. Clyde Cartright, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johns and his sister; Mrs. Eva Pyle of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and sons of Newell Heights near Adrian; and the honor guests with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cartright, George and Raymond and Grandfather Cartright.

Mrs. Jake Trout and Mrs. Frank Trout, old friends of the elder Mr. Cartright called in the afternoon.

Missing from the family group were a daughter, Helen, her husband and daughter, who recently moved to Washington.

MCCOY-MARTELL

At a simple wedding performed at the Church of God parsonage in Boise on Saturday, Oct. 26, Miss Rose Martell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Martell of Star, Idaho, became the bride of Don McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew McCoy of Sunset Valley.

Only close friends and members of the family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy will make their home in Boise but spent a few days visiting at the McCoy home in the valley.

CARD PARTIES

Autumn blossoms and the halloween motif were used in table and room decorations at the home of Mrs. Burnall Brown on Saturday afternoon and evening when Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Leo Hollenberg were hostesses at six tables of dessert and contract.

Out of town guests invited were Mrs. Blaine Ballah, Denver; and Mrs. G. Humphreys of Yakima, Washington.

Prizes at the afternoon games were won by Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, Mrs. George J. Mitchell and Mrs. A. C. Salter. In the evening Mrs. Malcolm Crawford and Mrs. John Bishop won.

GUILD PARTY

The progressive card party given by the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Wednesday evening was one of the gala events of the autumn social season and attracted an unusually large group of contract and pinocchio players.

Card games were enjoyed at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Schreman, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tensen, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hollenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eldridge. The winner of each group progressed to another home to complete their score.

Following the final game everyone met at the Parish Hall where at least eighty persons gathered to hear the winners, receive prizes and enjoy a buffet supper.

The Parish hall was decorated in autumn flowers and in the halloween motif, at the supper tables, Mrs. Frank Morgan and Mrs. Hollenberg presided.

Prizes for contract were won by Mrs. Burnall Brown and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher. For the men Irvin Elder and Everett Taylor made high scores. At Pinocchio Mrs. John E. Ostrom and Mrs. R. G. Whitaker were high for the ladies and Bernard Eastman and Wayne Morris made high scores for the gentlemen.

Several out of town guests were present, coming as guests of Nyssa folk. Among those having guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olsen and Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Moore from Ontario.

Besides the guild members in whose homes the games were played who contributed much toward the evening's enjoyment, the general committee composed of Mrs. Bernard Eastman, Mrs. Charles Drevitz and Mrs. Charles Grider were responsible for the outstanding success of the party.

THURSDAY EVENING BRIDGE

Mrs. John Bishop entertained the members of the Thursday Evening Bridge club at her home this week and invited Mrs. Glea Billings as a guest for the evening. Mrs. Omer Adkinson, Mrs. Bernard Eastman and Mrs. Carlos Buchner won the prizes.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilson entertained at dinner and cards on Saturday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Boersma, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morfitt and Clark Neely.

LIONS DINNER

Many causes contributed to the poor attendance at the Lions club dinner held at the school house on Tuesday evening where seventy-five guests had been planned for and about thirty were present.

Entertainment during dinner was furnished by high school students with Bob Sawyer acting as toastmaster.

Following dinner, club president, R. G. Whitaker, spoke very briefly.

Wait for Completion of Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fletcher moved on Sunday to the living apartment at Mr. Fletcher's office that the Marger Lynch house which they had been occupying might be made ready for Mr. and Mrs. Horn and their family, who had been living in Caldwell. The Horns are now occupying the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher will move into their new home at Sixth near Erghood as soon as it is completed, probably within the next ten days.

Dance Place Changed

The Hard Time dance that was to be given at the Adrian Legion hall, by the H. E. Club of Kingman Grange, will be held at the Big Bend Park hall instead, according to the committee in charge of the affair. The change of place was made necessary due to the conflict in dates.

The dance is to be held Saturday, November 2.

1849 Farm Sale

While on a trip through Tennessee and Kentucky this past summer Mrs. P. N. Campbell living on the new land ran across an old sale published in 1849, held by a family moving to the new Oregon country. And in between the lines, we learn he must have been a kind man—would not separate his slaves—it reads—

Having sold my farm and as I am about to leave for the Oregon territory by oxen teams (Ben and Buck Low and Jerry) consisting of the following:

2 milk cows, 1 gray mare, and colt, 1 pair oxen, 1 yoke, 1 baby yoke, 2 ox carts, 1 iron plow, with wood mold board, 800 feet weather board, 1500 fence rails, 1-60 gallon soap kettle, 85 sugar troughs, 10 gallons maple syrup, 1 barrel Johnson and Miller whiskey, 7 years old, 20 gallons apple brandy, 1-40 gallon copper still, 2 spinning wheels, 30 lbs. tallow, 1 large loom, 300 poles, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels, 4 sides leather, 12 wooden pitchforks, half interest in tan yards, 1 rifle with bullet moulds and powder horn soft soap, bacon, ham, lard, molasses, six head of fox hounds, all soft mouthed, but one, also 6 negro slaves, 2 men, 2 boys and 2 mulatto wenches, all together to one party as I will not separate them.

Sale will begin at 7 a. m. Plenty to eat and drink.
