To the Nyssa Lion's Club,
Gentlemen:

While reading the issue of the Nyssa Gate City Journal, I note that your club is sponsoring a benefit dance for all the young people in the Nyssa area who are victims of poliomyelitis, as I find my name among others I wish to advise your club that I fully appreciate your good intentions and think everyone troubled with this ailment will be made happy to know that so many friends are thinking of us.

Thanking the Lion's very kindly for thinking of me.

I am very truly yours,
MARION OSBORN.
