MORGAN PARK CLUB

Morgan Park club will meet Friday evening, April 18, at the James Stephen home on Lytle Blvd. for the regular monthly business meeting. This will be the first meeting of the club year and a large attendance is desired. The club reports a crowd of 40 out at the picnic and clean-up recently.

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET

The Nyssa branch of the Brotherhood of the Snake River Valley, an organization of men belonging to the various Methodist churches in this area entertained the association at a dinner and program on Thursday evening at the Domestic Science room in the High School. Fifty members were present to enjoy the dinner prepared by the Ladies Aid.

L. E. Robbins acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers of the evening, which were

Rev. John Anderson, Dean of Men, and head of the Department of Religion at the College of Idaho, who spoke on "Faith in a time like These." Others who spoke briefly were Dr. Charles Donaldson, Nampa, and Rev. George Roseberry, Caldwell. Dick Kuhlman sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Allen. Both were from Fruitland.

BISHOP ENTERTAINED

Complimenting Bishop Bruce Baxter, Portland, who spoke at the Gymnasium on Thursday evening, thirty-five members of the Methodist church board and officials enjoyed a dinner at the Parsonage preceding the address which was served by members of the Ladies Aid. Parish business and the construction of the new church were discussed.

THE OUT OUR WAY CLUB

The Out Our Way Club met with Mrs. Orma Goodell Thursday afternoon with all members present. Mrs. Pearl Nyberg and Mrs. Gladys Florea were guests. The club presented Mrs. Florea and Mrs. Dawn Hoffman with going-away gifts.

Embroidery work was done for the hostess and some April-fools gifts were exchanged after which lunch of ice cream and cookies were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Blanche Hoffman on April 17.

DINNER DANCE

On Tuesday evening, in honor of their son Raymond's sixteenth birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson invited eight of his school friends to a surprise dinner and dancing party for him.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Mrs. Kenneth Cottle was hostess to the Tuesday afternoon Bridge Club at her home this week and all members were present. High scores were made by Mrs. George Sallee and Mrs. George J. Mitchell.

SURPRISE PARTY

In honor of her birthday anniversary which fell on April 3, sixteen of Mrs. Charles Paradis friends gave a surprise party for her at her home on Tuesday afternoon last. Lunch was brought and prepared by the guests after which pinocle was played. Mrs. Harold Gregg, Mrs. Floyd Hirst, Mrs. E. C. West won prizes for high scores.

SUNDAY EVENING PARTY

Eighteen friends of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey L. Fletcher from Vale were guests at a Sunday evening supper and cards. Both contract and pinocle were played at which Mrs. Carl Pegley, Chas. Leavitt, Walter Keil, and Mrs. Agnes Hon won high scores. Mrs. E. J. Powell, Nyssa, was also a guest.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Cut flowers and Easter lilies carried out the Easter motif at a series of dessert contract parties given by Mrs. Henry Hartley and Mrs. Gordon Finlay at the home of Mrs. Finlay on Friday afternoon and evening. Tables were set for sixteen guests at each party. High scores in the afternoon went to Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Mrs. Joe Trent and Mrs. Herbert H. Fisher and in the evening, Mrs. Charles Orider, Mrs. E. J. Powell and Miss Margaret Stevenson won.

THURSDAY BRIDGE

Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. Arthur H. Boydell at her home last Thursday and Mrs. Bernal Brown was invited to play with the members. High score for the afternoon was made by Mrs. Tom Eldridge.

STAR EASTER CEREMONIAL

About fifty members of the Nyssa order of the Eastern Star and visitors from Ontario and Vale attended the Easter ritual given by the Stars at their regular meeting on Monday evening at the Masonic hall.

Organist for the evening was Mrs. Arthur H. Boydell and solos were sung by Mrs. Ernest McClure and Mrs. Wm. De Groot.

Following the ceremonies a buffet supper was served from a lace covered table on which glowing lighted yellow tapers and a large bowl of drooping forsythia further carried out the golden scheme in decoration.

Members in the refreshment and decoration committee were Miss Eva Boydell, Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, Mrs. McConnell and Ellen from Adrian, Mrs. Bud Wilson, Mrs. Dan Holly.

Visiting Stars attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis, Depot Bay, Mrs. Vern Wilson and Mrs. Collis Carter, Vale, and Mrs. Butler, Miss Young and Mrs. Eldon Jensen, Ontario.

THURSDAY EVENING BRIDGE

Mrs. Sidney Burbridge was hostess for the Thursday Evening Bridge Club on Wednesday evening and invited Mrs. Emma Quinby and Mrs. Bernard Frost to play as guests for the evening. A late lunch was served at the finish of the games at which Mrs. Aden Wilson, Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Herbert H. Fisher won the prizes.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Mrs. Minnie Leuck, Mrs. Daisy Ray and Mrs. Fannie Felton were hostesses for the ladies of the Sunshine Club of the Rehoboths when they met at the Odd Fellows hall on last Friday afternoon.

A large number of members were present and following the business meeting a shower complimenting Mrs. Chas. M. Huffman, nee Thelma Root, was held. The afternoon closed with a social hour at which time the hostesses served refreshments.

CIVIC CLUB

Civic Club will meet on Wednesday, April 16, at the Parish hall at two-thirty. Speaker for the afternoon will be Monica Edsall, owner of Monica's Shop in Boise, who will talk on "Accessories in the Home."

Also on the program will be some musical numbers.

Tea service at the close of the program is in charge of the committee. As this is the first meeting since election of officers all members are urged to be present and a cordial invitation to visitors is extended.

MR. AND MRS. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Mitchell entertained the members of the Mr. and Mrs. Club at dinner and contract at their home on Wednesday evening, inviting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sallee as guests for the evening. High score at cards were made by Mr. Mitchell and Ray Larson.

Stan Thompson Escapes Injury

On Thursday afternoon while returning to Nyssa from the Oregon Trail district with his mother, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Stan, three years old, escaped with only superficial injuries what might have been a serious accident. He with his young sister were in the back of the car and managed to unlock the door and open it. He fell out headlong landing in the gravel beside the road. Mrs. Thompson was going very slowly, stopped immediately and took Stan to the Skinner farm near by. A doctor was called and the wounds dressed there. The lad is now able to be out.

Daughter Visits

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morganti, nee Irene Clausen, visited from Saturday last until Monday morning with her father, George Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. Morganti have been with construction work in New York and North Carolina for the past five years. Mr. Morganti is now employed in Washington.

Dance At Adrian

"Swing and Sway with Adrian F. F. A." is the motto set up by Stuart Schweizer for the annual agriculture benefit dance to be held in the high school auditorium this Saturday, April 12. Stuart who is chairman of the dance states that according to ticket sales a good crowd is anticipated.

The Rhythm Aces, popular eight piece orchestra from Nyssa has been contracted to provide the music. This orchestra was just organized last fall but already has many ardent followers. This is the big dance at Adrian and it is hoped that everyone who likes to dance to good music and on an excellent floor will make an effort to attend.

Returns To Tacoma
